OBITUARIES.

Iowa Conference.

Joseph Gassner was born in Carlisle, Pa., September 27, 1811, of German parentage. On the 8th of August, 1829, he was happily converted. In 1836 he joined the Ohio Conference and was appointed to Springfield, Ohio Conference. This circuit had twenty-two appointments. In 1837–38 he was sent to Belpree Circuit. In 1838–39 he was appointed to Logan C. H., W. Va. This circuit was three hundred and seventy-five miles in extent, and it required forty-two days to travel around it. In those early days there were only three grist-mills within the bounds of the circuit, and corn was pounded in a mortar. Bears, panthers, and deer abounded, and all rivers had to be forded. In 1839–40 he was appointed to Germantown Circuit; then to Bethel, Madison, New Haven, Richmond; re-appointed to Bethel, Germantown again, Clinton, and York Street, Cincinnati, and Sharonville. In the autumn of 1854 he was transferred to the Iowa Conference, and stationed at Old Zion, Burlington; then at Fairfield, Brookville, Keosauqua, Farmington, Birmingham, Crawfordsville, Marshall, Richmond, Lexington, Sweetland Center, High Prairie, and Grandview. In the fall of 1873 his health failed, and he asked for a supernumerary relation without appointment, which was granted. He then moved to Mount Pleasant. In 1875 he was made effective, and was stationed at Harmony Church, Fairfield; Richwoods, Lebanon, Fairfield again. In 1879 his relation was changed from that of effective to supernumerary. He requested to be placed on the superannuated list in 1880, and sustained this relation until he was called from labor to reward. Brother Gassner, in the year 1840, was married to Miss Harriet Heusel, of Winchester, O., who several years before his decease passed to the better land. While he did not have the training of the schools for himself, in the early days of the planting and training of the Church in the West, yet this lack was, in a great measure, supplied by a wide acquaintance with theological and general literature. Brother Gassner was a very acceptable preacher and a good pastor. His ministry was almost invariably blessed with revivals. He was faithful in attending to all the details of his work, as his statistical and benevolent reports will show. He was for many years a trustee of the Iowa Wesleyan University, during which period he gave largely of his small means to its support. His spirit was pure, devout, child-like, and transparent, having at the same time the general typing of that heroic age which produced the Finleys and Cartwrights, and which laid the foundation in the West of that splendid Church which has done so much for our land and our own age. He retained his physical and intellectual powers until the last. He died at the home of his son, W. F. Gassner, in Red Oak, Ia., March 26, 1889, in the seventy-seventh year of his age.

East Ohio Conference.

T. R. Radcliffe was born in Kirk Andreas, Isle of Man, March 7, 1808. He was converted when about eighteen years old, united with the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and was soon licensed to preach. Coming to this country he settled within the bounds of the Erie Conference, and was soon employed to supply Concord Circuit. He was admitted on trial, in 1849, in the Erie Conference, in which he remained until the formation of the East Ohio Conference. Father Radcliff was a man of firmness, and yet his heart was full of tenderness. He was a kind husband and father. As a preacher he was a success. His preaching showed that his sermons were well studied, and had the gleam that could be produced only by a brilliant mind. His last days did not lend much satisfaction to friends, as his intellect was clouded to some extent. He superannnated in 1876, and spent the last years of his life with his daughter. He had been married twice, but his companions had both preceded him to the eternal world. He died November 6, 1888, after an illness of some weeks. His death certainly was that of the righteous.

W. F. Wilson was born in Farmington, Trumbull County, O., August 15, 1809. August, 1837, he was admitted on trial in the Erie Conference, of which he remained a member until 1880, when he was transferred to the East Ohio Conference, his residence being within the bounds of the latter. He was ordained deacon in 1839 by Bishop Soule, and elder in 1841 by Bishop Roberts. He served the following appointments in the order named: Parkman, Ravenna, Cleveland Circuit, Hudson, Chagrin Falls, Gustavus, Williamsfield, Mercer, Franklin, Clarion, Franklin District, Fredonia District, Erie, New Castle, Cleveland, Ravenna District, Cleveland District, Ashtabula, Mercer again, Youngstown, Corry, North East, Chagrin Falls again, Erie District, Warren, Pa. He was effective forty years without intermission, and sixteen years of that time presiding elder. He held a supernumerary relation for four years, and a superannuated relation eight years. For many years he was secretary of the Erie Conference, until he was appointed to a district. Many extensive revivals attended his ministry. In his own language: "Have seen souls converted every year. At Youngstown three hundred were added to the Church. Bless the Lord, O my soul!" Thus we have a very brief outline of a useful life that closed February 19, 1889, at his home in Willoughby, O. While his public career was marked with success in soul-winning and building up the Church, in antagonizing error and preaching the doctrines of the Church of his choice, his home life was no less characterized by his genuine love for wife and children. While stationed at Painesville, O., he was married to Miss Sarah J. Hitchcock, April 13, 1841. From that day to the day of his death their home life was peculiarly marked by their affection for, and devotion to, each other. During the last hours of his life he gathered his family about him and pronounced a loving blessing upon each one present, and sent an affectionate message to the absent one, Brother Wilson, of Columbia River Conference, who could not be present. With many expressions of confidence and hope he passed from labor to reward.

Theodore Danforth Blinn was born July 4, 1815, in Pownal, Vt., and died in Jefferson, O., March 2, 1889. He was converted at Madison, O., November 27, 1833, and united with the Church at Centerville. He was received on trial in the Erie Conference in July, 1837. In 1839 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Soule, and elder in 1841 by Bishop Roberts. May 20, 1841, he was united in marriage with Clarinda Bartholomew. He was a man of deep personal piety and a faithful minister. He died a happy and triumphant death. The following are the appointments he served: Oil Creek, Wesleyville, North East, McKean, Harmonsburg, Coopertown, Harmony, Mayville, Westfield, Quincy, Ellington, Portland, Ellery, Ashville, Randolph, Ellington again, Forestville, Portland again, Sherman, Quincy again, Wesleyville again, Albion, superannuate, Conneaut, Nottingham, Jefferson, Williamsfield, Orwell, Rock Creek, superannuated.

L. E. Beardsley was born in Clinton, Oneida County, N. Y., February 13, 1815, and died at Richmond Center, O., June 14, 1889. He was converted when eighteen years of age. At the age of twenty-four he married Miss Nancy Conner. April 5, 1856, he was licensed to preach, and one year later joined the Erie Conference. He was ordained deacon in 1859. In 1861 he was ordained elder. Brother Beardsley was a faithful servant of t e Church, and a devoted, successful minister of Christ. In 1860 his wife died. He afterward married Miss Mary Smith. He continued in the itinerancy till the fall of 1882, when, his health failing, his name was placed on the superannuated list. As a thinker he was clear and abreast of his times. As a preacher he was earnest, systematic, and logical; frequently eloquent and powerful. He was perfectly at home in all the fundamental doctrines of the Christian religion. He was a loving father, a faithful husband, a generous friend, a true Christian. Death had no terrors for him. He overcame by the blood of the Lamb.

George G. Watters was born in Hartford County, Md., December 29, 1820, and died of paralysis, in Chicago, Ill., July 1, 1889. When seventeen or eighteen years old he became a subject of saving grace. He was united in marriage with Jane Orison, of Hunter, O., in 1842. In 1851 he was admitted into the Pittsburg Annual Conference. He was ordained deacon June 26, 1853, during which year his wife ceased from her labor and entered into rest. June 17, 1855, he was ordained elder, and the same year was joined in marriage with Hattie Reed, of Monroe County, O. He served the following charges: McConnelsville, Summerfield, Beverly, Franklin (Pa.), Springfield, Westchester, and Washington, when in 1866 he took a superannuated relation. The following year was made effective, and subsequently he served Summerfield again, Stafford, Rich Hill, Senecaville, Bellaire Circuit. After the formation of East Ohio Conference he was appointed to Orwell and Colebrook, Mantua, Charlestown, Quaker City. In 1882 he took a supernumerary relation, and in 1883 was transferred to the Iowa Conference, and served two years at West Liberty, having completed thirty-one years of effective Conference relations. He then superannuated; and in September, 1888, was re-transferred to East Ohio Conference. Brother Watters was a good preacher, a safe disciplinarian, and a wise counselor. Many were brought to Christ through his ministry, and will rise up in the great day to call him blessed.

Wisconsin Conference.

Joseph Hayden Jenne was born in New Bedford, Mass., September 6, 1806. He joined the Maine Conference in 1831. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Hedding July 7, 1833, and was ordained elder by Bishop Emory July 5, 1835, at the Maine Conference. Brother Jenne labored in the East as Methodist preacher and presiding elder for twenty-five years. His appointments were Portland, Hampden, Augusta, and Hallowell; and he served as presiding elder on the Bangor and Portland Districts. He was a delegate to the General Conference held at Pittsburg in 1848. Brother Jenne came to Wisconsin in the fall of 1856 as agent for Lawrence University. He continued in the agency for one year, and then was appointed presiding elder of the Appleton District for four years. He was next stationed as pastor of the First Church of Janesville, and was next appointed presiding elder of the Janesville District. His other appointments in Wisconsin were as pastor at Lake Mills, Heart Prairie, Waupun, Allen's Grove, Union Grove, Lyons and Spring Prairie, Ripon, and Waukau. Brother Jenne was a good manager of church work, as this fact shows: in that he was presiding elder for seventeen years. For the last ten years he has been on the superannuated list, and has resided at Lake Mills. He was in many respects a remarkable man. Strong, both physically and mentally, he was well equipped for the work he had chosen, and entered upon it with an earnestness for which he was distinguished. As a preacher he was strong and convincing. Many yet remember his stirring appeals. He never lost his freshness and sympathy, even in his advanced age. There was something about him that would draw people to him, even little children. Thus life with him was pleasant and home was sunshine. There were some who did not understand Brother Jenne; with his strong inquiring and metaphysical mind he would sometimes apparently soar beyond the orthodox lines of some of his critics; but he never lost sight of the atonement made by the death of Christ, and the need of man being reconciled to God through Christ Jesus; and with the expression of a full confidence in the victory which he had attained he passed on to his reward, January 21, 1888, in the eighty-third year of his age. He has left a widow and three daughters.

John W. Fridd was born in East Kent, England, August 30, 1814, and died at his home in Koro, Wis., on November 24, 1888. He was married to Miss Mary Lathrop, of Genesee, on January 18, 1846. Mrs. Fridd died on the 19th of December, 1881. On December 24, 1882, Brother Fridd was married to Mrs. Agnes Wilson, who died in October, 1884, and in 1886 he was married to Mrs. Stone. Brother Fridd was a successful farmer, punctual and laborious. About 1850 Brother Fridd settled in Wisconsin, and preached in many places during the twenty years following. In 1871 he was received into the Wisconsin Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church from the Methodist Protestant Church, and was stationed at Kingston. In 1872 and 1873 his field of labor was Alto; in 1874 he was returned to Kingston; in 1875 he was given a supernumerary relation, his wife having become suddenly blind. She did not recover. This relation was never altered. It appears, however, that he served Auroraville Charge in 1881. During the years of his retirement he did not excuse himself from ministerial labor; his brethren always found in him a ready and sympathizing helper. He would go many miles to serve them. He visited the sick, ministered to the dying, and was in great demand for funeral sermons. He would fill the pulpit of a sick brother, or one on a vacation, for months at a time, and always without pay; and do it cheerfully, as if he were the party obliged. Brother Fridd fully sustained his ministerial character for many years while on the retired list. In addition he took on him all the responsibilities of a member of the local church. He regularly contributed to the support of the pastor, and also to all the benevolences of the Church. He was a trustee and always ready for duty. His funeral took place at his late residence on November 27, 1888. Hundreds of sympathizing friends attended his remains to the grave.

Henry Orcutt was born in Bern, Albany County, N. Y., February 27, 1822, and died at Pine River, Wis., November 15, 1888. He was converted at the age of eighteen years. He was married, September 27, 1848, to Miss Julia Graves, who nobly toiled by his side on every field of labor. One son and one daughter—Mrs. Dr. Guernsey of Amherst—with their beloved mother, mourn his loss. Brother Orcutt was received on probation in the Wisconsin Conference in 1854, was ordained deacon by Bishop Ames in 1857, and elder by Bishop Baker in 1865. He served on the following charges: West Bend, Amherst, Ogdensburg, Buena Vista, Almond, Badger, Rural, Buena Vista again, Weyauwega, Amherst again, and Almond again. In 1870 he took a superannuated relation and from that time till the time of his death lived upon his farm at Pine River, where he was greatly beloved by all who knew him. Brother Orcutt was a man of sweet spirit and spotless life—a faithful minister of Jesus Christ. Many souls were converted and added to the Church under his ministry. When his last sickness came he was supplying the people with preaching at Burr Oak Valley. A few days previous to his death he attended a social gathering and donation which the people had arranged for his benefit. He was not well at the time; and in the course of his remarks said, "I may never be able to meet you again." The next day he became unconscious, and remained in that state till God took him.

North-west Iowa Conference.

Barlow Weed Gorham was born in Danbury, Conn., June 25, 1814, and died at Sea Cliff, N. Y., April 11, 1889. He was married, October 4, 1835, to Miss Olivia Holcomb, at Plymouth, N. Y. Brother Gorham was received on trial by the Oneida Conference in 1836; was admitted to full connection and ordained deacon in 1839; was ordained elder in 1841. His appointments were as follows: Earlville, East Hamilton, Chenango, Vernon Center, Cherry Valley, New Hartford, Winfield, Cooperstown, Carbondale, New Troy (now Wyoming), Pa.; Henry Street, Binghamton, Wyoming Conference (this having been organized from a part of Oneida), Tract Agent, superannuated, Court Street, Binghamton; Oswego, Scranton, Court Street, Binghamton, again; located; admitted to New England Conference and stationed at Lynn, West Brookfield, located, 1876 admitted to North-west Iowa Conference and stationed at Elk Point, Dak.; Sac City, supernumerary, superannuated. When not serving as pastor Brother Gorham was largely and successfully engaged in evangelistic work. For this he was peculiarly fitted. In Wyoming Conference he was honored with the secretaryship in 1853 and in 1857. Brother Gorham was clear-headed, of a philosophical turn, a close student, and a lover of truth, especially of God's word. At a camp-meeting, after retiring to rest in the "stand," the preachers were discussing and a doubt was raised as to a text. Brother Gorham sprang up and struck a light to find the passage, saying, "It is worth getting up at midnight any time to get an idea from God." He thought for himself, and had deep convictions, was independent, fearless, positive; yet he was tender and sympathizing. He was keenly sensitive to any error of which he became conscious, and thoroughly ingenuous in acknowledging it. He was an explicit witness, and a fearless and able advocate, of entire sanctification. He had been for years a member of the National Association for the Promotion of Holiness.

Abraham A. Shesler was born near Lancaster, O., September 25, 1824. He was clearly and powerfully converted at a camp-meeting near Pinkerton, O., in 1846. In October, 1851, he joined the Scioto Conference of the United Brethren in Christ. He continued to do effective work in the ministry of this Church until the fall of 1873, when he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the same year he was appointed as a supply to the New Rutland Circuit, Central Illinois Conference. He served this charge two years, then came to Iowa and was appointed as a supply to Bristol Circuit, and at the close of this year was admitted into the North-west Iowa Conference, on his credentials from the United Brethren Church. From this time he was continually in the active ministry until 1886, when he was superannuated. Hartley was his last appointment. He left a good record in all of the appointments he served. He was united in marriage to Miss Mira Wilkinson, in Ohio, November 6, 1862. She died February 26, 1864. In October, 1870, he was married to Joanna Buzzel, in Blandinville, Ill. Brother Shesler was truly a good man; he was fully devoted to God, and had strong commanding faith. He was a good preacher; it is thought that more than a thousand souls were converted under his ministry. He had a wonderful knowledge of the Scriptures; he could quote from memory every important passage, and give you book, chapter, and verse. His friendship was pure, unselfish, and constant. From his home in Spencer, Ia., May 26, 1889, surrounded by his devoted wife and a few friends, he went "sweeping through the gates, washed in the blood of the Lamb."

Ohio Conference.

Samuel Tippett departed this life December 24, 1888, at his home in Columbus, O. He embraced religion in the days of his youth. Being persuaded of his call to the work of the ministry, he gave himself to that work and was received into the Ohio Conference in the fall of 1853, and was appointed to Rushville, Etna, West Jefferson, London, Westerville, Milford, Harrisburg, Groveport, Worthington, and Franklinton. His health failing he took a supernumerary relation to the Conference. He was never after able to resume the effective relation. He served the Church faithfully for nineteen years. His mind was well stored with useful knowledge, and his heart with saving grace. He was an effective and successful minister of the Lord Jesus Christ, and God gave him many seals to his ministry. He enjoyed the affection of his brethren, and was happy in their fellowship. He was a fast friend, an affectionate husband, an indulgent parent, and an ardent lover of his Church. His end was peaceful. God bless his bereaved family.

Zachariah Wharton was born April 17, 1812, and died at his home near Bourneville, Ross County, O., May 7, 1889. He was received into the Ohio Conference in 1834. His first charge was Wilmington, after which he received the following appointments: Brush Creek, Bainbridge, Piketon, located, Frankfort, Hillsborough, Deer Creek, supernumerary, East White Oak, superannuated, Frankfort again, Spencer Chapel, Portsmouth; New Holland, Main Street, Chillicothe; superannuated, Chillicothe Circuit. During his superannuation he supplied the following charges: Staunton, Deer Creek, Adelphi, Waverly, South Salem. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Roberts, at Xenia, O., October 1, 1837, and elder by Bishop Soule, at Cincinnati, in 1839. The frequent breaks which appear in his ministerial record were caused by throat affection. In March, 1887, Brother Wharton suffered from brain trouble, technically termed a clot, or embolism, from which he never entirely recovered. In April, 1889, this tendency to clot, or embolism, formed in the great toe of the left foot, causing dry gangrene. As a last resort, on May 3, his limb was amputated midway between the ankle and knee. He bore the operation well, but it failed to arrest the disease. Two days after he passed into a comatose state, from which he did not rally. He died easily. When informed by his physicians that he might not survive the shock of amputation, he said: "Proceed, for I am ready to go!" He died in the faith of the Gospel that he preached so long, and in the possession of that hope which is begotten by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. Brother Wharton was a profound thinker, a logical reasoner, an earnest contender for the faith, an able, dignified minister of the New Testament.

Elijah V. Bing was born February 22, 1811, in Gallia County, O. He was received on trial into the Ohio Conference in the fall of 1837. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Soule, and elder by Bishop Roberts. His first appointment was French Grant Circuit. Brother Delay's health failing, Brother

Bing was placed in charge. In 1838 he was appointed to Logan, with Brother Delay again as colleague, and in a few weeks he was once more, and from the same cause, left in charge. Hence from the first Brother Bing was, apparently by Providential interposition, thrust into prominent positions. His subsequent appointments were: Summerville, Va.; Sutton, Irville, Hebron, Blendon, Baltimore, Marietta, Parkersburg, Va.; Point Pleasant. In 1849 Brother Bing, desiring to return to Ohio, located, and was appointed by the presiding elder to Rehoboth. In 1850 he was re-admitted and returned to Rehoboth, Granville, Gallipolis Station, New Plymouth, Somerset Station, East Newark, Harmar, Swan Creek, McArthur, Putnam, Hanging Rock. supernumerary, but supplied Burlington and Olive Furnace that and two following years, Old Town, Maxville, Deavertown, Hebron, Asbury, superannuated. January 6, 1847, Brother Bing married Caroline Russell Cooke. Sister Bing died triumphantly at Point Pleasant, Va., December 18, 1848. August 20, 1857, he married Miss Mary E. Newton of Lawrence County, O. Brother Bing was a man of deep piety, and his heart was thoroughly in his work. There are many who still remember him as nervously pushing from place to place on his large circuits, never more happy than when hastening in his Master's work. He died at Athens, O., February 9, 1889.

Samuel G. Prior was born October 24, 1856, near Asbury Chapel, in Muskingum County, O., and died of typhoid fever, after an illness of two weeks, in the parsonage at Lafayette, Madison County, O., August 19, 1889. When nine years of age he was converted, but did not unite with the Church until he was sixteen years old. In September, 1882, he was admitted on trial. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Merrill, at Circleville, in 1884, and an elder by Bishop Foss, at Athens, in 1886. He served the following charges: Washington Circuit, Dresden, Jerome, and Lafayette, where he was closing his second year when called from labor to reward. September 27, 1887, he was united in marriage with Miss Alice Purduns of Chillicothe, O. He was noted from early life for his gentleness and patience. Through all his school and college days and in the ministry he was wholly unselfish, prefering others before himself. It would be easy to pronounce a eulogy on this good and faithful brother. He was conscientious and tender of spirit; he went in and out before his people without rebuke. He has left a savor of good report in the minds of all the people of his charge. As a preacher, he was modest, clear, sound, and always interesting. On Sabbath, August 4, just two weeks before his death, while preaching a missionary sermon, he felt his nervous system give way; with great difficulty he closed the service, and returned to his home feeling conscious that his work on earth was about done. The next day he conducted a funeral service, which was his last work. He was remarkably composed as death came on. There was not the slightest manifestation of fear. His triumph was most glorious. His last hours, so surprisingly peaceful, left a holy spell that will long abide in the hearts of those who were permitted to stand about him as he passed from earth to the land of immortality. He said, "I thought I had a rich Christian experience during my ministry, but now I am ushered into a fullness which is unutterable." His career was short, but, like his Lord and Master, he could say, "I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do."

Samuel Miller Bright was born near Lancaster, O., February 28, 1825. He was converted when about fourteen. He early felt a call to the ministry, and while in Circleville became a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church in that place, where he attended services and where he occasionally preached to the people to their great satisfaction. He was at this time a young, smooth-faced and sparely-built man, quiet, unassuming in manners, with a noble reputation for piety and Christian consistency. From Circleville he was recommended to the Ohio Annual Conference in 1848 for admission on trial to the traveling connection. When his name was announced some one asked, "Who is this Brother Samuel M. Bright?" The reply was, "He is the grandson of Nimrod Bright." To this Brother Roe replied, "Good stock; admit him." But it was not all in the stock in this case, but in the sterling worth and real character of the man and in the majesty of grace. His first field of labor was near his home and among his relatives. Here he remained one year. He successively held the following appointments, doing good work on each field and leaving amid the regrets of the people: Granville, Coolville, Nelsonville, Royalton, Baltimore, Newark, Pomeroy, Logan, Darbyville, Midway, Hilliard, Stratford, Groveport, Frankfort, Portsmouth District, South Bloomfield, Carroll, Lewis Center, Worthington. He was a member of the General Conference of 1880. During the war he was in the field for several months as chaplain of the One Hundred and Fifty-fifth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He entered upon the forty first year of his ministry at the beginning of the present year. He began his work on Worthington Circuit with all his accustomed vigor and his labor was crowned with abundant success. Few men are so vigorous or are permitted to see the cause so prosperous in their hands after a service of forty years. The advancing years seemed to bring to him no diminution of efficiency. In the brief time he had been with the people of Worthington he had bound their hearts to him in an unusual degree. This was evidenced by the great concourse of people at his funeral and expressions indicating their sadness and loss after he had gone. Brother Bright was a man of sterling quality, conscientious in all his relations to the Church and God. A man of wisdom. His counsels were sought by many on a variety of subjects and not without receiving wise, safe, and Christian advice. In every relation to the Church where duty placed him he did his work well. As pastor, presiding elder, camp-meeting manager or secretary, husband, father, or friend, he was always the same sensible, steady, and true man, and in each place won laurels for Christ. In his profession of religion he was modest, avoiding what to him seemed boastfulness, but steadily living and acting the life and spirit of Jesus. His last illness was short and painful. His death came unexpectedly, at least to his immediate family. When asked by his wife in the midst of his extreme suffering, "Are you trusting in Jesus?" He answered, "Yes—yes," with great emphasis. He was probably not aware of his nearness to the other shore until he was too far out in the stream to communicate with his friends. May 22, 1852, he was happily married to Miss Emma A. Chester, of Delaware, O. To them were born eight children. Three have gone before him to heaven; of the five living four are married. All are members of the Church and leading Christian lives. The domestic life of Brother Bright was peculiarly sweet, pure, and happy. His children loved and obeyed him. His home was an earthly paradise. He will be missed from many places, but nowhere more sadly than from his home.

Jacob D. Hathaway was born in Washington County, Pa., June 22, 1815. August 30, 1838, he was united in marriage to Miss Melinda Smith of Somerset, O. This worthy couple lived happily together about forty-three years, or until 1881, when the heavenly Father transferred Sister Hathaway to himself. Brother Hathaway was again married, October 20, 1882, to Mrs. Elizabeth Coffman, who survives him. In 1857 he was received on trial into the Ohio Conference. His appointments were: Darbyville, Dublin, Mount Pleasant, Bourneville, Bainbridge, Massieville, Centerville, Swan Creek, Patriot, Wilkesville. In 1871 he was again made effective, and continued in the active work until 1882, when he again took a supernumerary relation, which after one year was changed to superannuated, in which relation he continued until the time of his death. He was stricken with paralysis November 6, 1887, and gradually declined until death came to his relief, September 29, 1889.

Elias A. Bridwell died at Pond Run, O., January 9, 1889, aged forty-one years. He was born in Scioto County, O., July 8, 1847. At the age of fourteen years he enlisted as a drummer-boy in Company D, Fifty-sixth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, at Portsmouth, O., October 20, 1861. He served three years and re-enlisted at Madisonville, La., January 31, 1864. He was discharged with his regiment at New Orleans, La., April 26, 1866. He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church while he was in the army at Algiers, La., in the year 1865. After returning from the war he applied himself industriously in acquiring an education, and spent about eleven years in the occupation of teaching. In 1883 he was admitted on trial in the Ohio Conference. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Merrill in 1884, and received elder's orders from Bishop Andrews in 1887. He was appointed to Latham, Rock Camp, Harrisonville, and Massieville. In the minutes of the Conference for 1887 we find this entry; "Elias A. Bridwell was granted a supernumerary relation at his own request." Failing health compelled him to take this relation. He had hopes of entering the active work again; but his disease became more malignant, and he soon fell its victim. His sufferings at times were great, yet he did not murmur. He was not a great preacher, but a good preacher; and every-where his daily life commended the truths which he preached. The religion that he presented to others wondrously sustained him in his dying hours. Shortly before his death he exclaimed in the language of Saint Paul, "I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day."

Indiana Conference.

George W. Fansler was born September 5, 1845, in Hendricks County, Ind. On his fourteenth birthday he was converted, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1879 he entered the Indiana Conference. He served as pastor on the following charges: Lynnville, Elizabeth, Greenville, Main Street, New Albany; Jennie De Pauw Memorial, New Albany; Boonville and Kingsly, Evansville. Brother Fansler served three years in the Union army in connection with a Colorado regiment. While in charge at Greenville he claimed the blessing of perfect love. His was a life of suffering, battling with disease. On Saturday, the 21st of September, 1889, he died in the faith of the Gospel which he had preached.

Henry O'Neal Chapman was born in Newberry County, S. C., July 1, 1822. At the age of twenty he was converted to God, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. February 13, 1845, he married Mary Lester. He was a minister of the Gospel for about forty years. In 1847 he was admitted into the Indiana Conference, and was appointed to serve as pastor of the following charges: Cynthiana, Lynnville, No Creek, Ky.; Owensville, New Harmony, Petersburg, New Lebanon, Putnamville, Gosport, Putnamville again, Spencer, Williamsburg, Rockport, and Washington. From this last charge he entered the army as chaplain of the Forty-second Regiment of Indiana Volunteers on the 5th day of April, 1864, and remained in the service until the war closed. After returning home he received the following appointments: Paoli, Belleville, Martinsville, Boonville, Patoka, Newburg, Bloomfield, Campbellsburg, Tunnelton, and Heltonville. This was his last appointment. In 1884 he requested a superannuated relation. Brother Chapman was a good neighbor, affectionate husband, kind father, devoted Christian, an earnest gospel preacher, and a faithful pastor. After he retired from the active ministry in 1884, he lived in Tunnelton until January, 1888, and then came to Mitchell. He was greatly afflicted for several years, but especially so for the past year. In the midst of all he was cheerful, and took a deep interest in the welfare of the nation and the prosperity of the Church. The day and hour to leave at last came, July 25, 1889.

Illinois Conference.

William E. Johnson was born near Urbana, O., August 27, 1820, and died at Normal, Ill., August 17, 1889. He was forty-four years in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and thirty-nine years a member of the Illinois Annual Conference; the last eight of which he sustained the relation of a superannuate. He was converted in October, 1842; was licensed to preach in June 1845, and entered the Illinois Conference in September of the same year. He was appointed to Jacksonville, Jonesborough, located, re-admitted, and appointed to Carrolton, Clinton, Urbana, Virginia, West Charge, Bloomington, Mount Pleasant, Heyworth, McLean, Waynesville, Decatur, Quincy, Jacksonville, West Jacksonville, North Jacksonville, Williamsville, Sagamore, Pleasant Plains, Elkhart, superannuated. He began his labors at the time of large circuits, when the itinerant preached every day except the two days of rest in the month, and when it required heroic bravery to endure the lot and labor of an itinerant. But these large and laborious fields afforded great opportunities for the development of his splendid energies, and called out the noblest elements of his character. Located at the end of his second year to attend McKendree College, he was compelled to change his plans on account of failing health. During the time of his location he respectively occupied the position of agent of the Illinois Female College and for the American Bible Society. During his location he was appointed by Bishop Janes to Springfield, where he established a second charge. Beginning without a member or a dollar, he closed the year with a membership of over one hundred members and a subscription for a church building well under way. At the close of his presiding eldership of Quincy District he was elected delegate to the General Conference held at Brooklyn, N. Y. In social life he was serious and thoughtful, though at times he was radiant with flashes of sparkling humor, and in conversation he was pure; and a deep fervent spirituality pervaded almost every element of his life. Though a good speaker, such was his modesty and lack of confidence as to his own ability that he almost always manifested a sense of shrinking whenever he entered the pulpit; and when the time came for him to retire from the active work he felt it to be a grateful respite from the severe responsibilities of ministerial life. In the autumn of his declining years he sat under the ministry of his younger brethren, feeling it a great pleasure to hear the Gospel from lips other than his own, and entered into the service of God with cheers and earnestness. He was faithful to every means of grace. The last fifteen months of his life were spent upon a bed of sickness, but with an uncomplaining patience indicating the true character of a Christian. "My work now," said he, "is to patiently endure this affliction."

John G. Mitchell died at Virginia, Ill., October 25, 1888. He was born in Marysville, Tenn., March 7, 1827, and was converted in his sixteenth year. In 1864 he was received on trial by the Illinois Conference, and ordained deacon in 1866. In 1868 he was ordained elder. He served the following charges:

Bath, Virginia, Topeka, Perry, Griggsville Circuit, Centerville, Tolono, and North Jacksonville. These appointments covered a period of eleven years. From 1875 to 1879 he was supernumerary, and in 1880 was superannuated. Brother Mitchell had clear perceptive powers, was a good average preacher, and had frequent revivals. He loved children, and they were greatly blessed through his ministry, as he aimed in many of his sermons to have "some words for the children." He was a manly man, had strong convictions, and was very frank in his utterances both in the pulpit and out. He was not ambitious of promotion to office or place in his Conference, attended to all the interests, and was intensely loyal to the economy of his Church. A firm and devoted friend of humanity, he hated every thing that was evil. Honored and trusted, even by those who opposed him, his party friends nominated him for the Legislature on the Prohibition ticket, confidently expecting that the voters of the thirty-fourth district of all parties would vote for him. He was fervent in prayer and forcible in exhortation. His exemplary life commended him to the people wherever he lived, and his rich religious experience sustained him to the last and gave him the victory. His last greeting to the brethren of the Illinois Conference was: "Assure them that Jesus was with me, all is bright, I am greatly sustained, I am not disappointed—all is well: meet me in Heaven." Brother Mitchell was married twice, first to Miss Mary E. Grant, January 10, 1849, who died January 6, 1850; then, April 29, 1855, to Miss Nancy D. Eckles, who with three children survive.

Genesee Conference.

William Armstrong was born in Blantyre, near Glasgow, Scotland, May 31, 1828. When but a child he gave his heart to Christ, but made no public profession of religion till the age of eighteen. When he had reached his majority, he came to this country, where he hoped to find, in the better opportunities which our institutions afford, the chance to satisfy his insatiable thirst for knowledge. These opportunities he wisely and diligently improved. Though not an educated man, in the technical sense of that term, he was a learned man. He had a retentive memory, and knew how to use the knowledge he diligently acquired. In 1851 he was married to Miss Emiline C. Perry. In 1852 he joined the East Genesee Conference. His fields of labor have been: Brookfield, Ulster, Monroeton, Conference missionary, Southport, Hector, Milo Center, Wellsville. In 1866 he took a superannuated relation, which he held for eleven years. In 1877 he returned to the effective ranks, and was appointed to Pultneyville, Holley, East Bloomfield. In 1885 he took a supernumerary relation. Though still in feeble health, at the Conference in 1888 he asked for work, and was appointed to Miller's Corners. Here he took up the work with the zeal and enthusiasm of a young man. Every interest of the work began at once to take on new life. In the midst of the work of pushing a subscription for remodeling the church, he was stricken down and, after only a week's illness, died on Sunday morning, June 8, 1889. He fell at his post. Always popular and successful, he was never more so than on his last charge. Such was the hold that he had upon the community, that the business men came forward, after his death, and asked the privilege of completing the work which he had begun. "We want to do this as our memorial of him," said they. The subscription, which in his hands had reached $1,200, was taken by them and pushed forward till nearly $3,000 was secured, and the work on the church is now being pushed rapidly to completion. Brother Armstrong had many elements of greatness in his character. Tenacity of purpose, energy that was tireless, and a knowledge of human nature, were some of them. He knew how to manage affairs and men. He was a good man, an able preacher, a wise and a winning pastor. He will be remembered longest for his skill in preaching to children. It had been his custom, for many of the last years of his ministry, to preach five and ten minute sermons to the children, whom he never failed to attract and interest. His book of Sermons to Children is a model in its way.

Jonathan Benson was born at Sharon, N. Y., in 1799, and from his home in Victor, N. Y., November 20, 1888, in his ninetieth year, he was gathered to his home above, "as a shock of corn fully ripe." He was converted at seventeen years of age, and his Christian experience of over seventy-two years was a source of great comfort to him, and was profitable to the Church. In his youth he married Catharine Anderson at Springfield, N. Y., in the year 1818, and she lived and labored with him during sixty-seven years, preceeding him by three years to the mansions of rest. He joined the Genesee Conference in 1829. He did not present himself, but sent his name by the presiding elder. After this he never missed attending his Conference but twice. His life in the itinerancy saw the alpha and the omega of the East Genesee Conference with wide margins on on both sides. He was thought to be the oldest in ministerial life in the Conference, having begun his ministry under the presiding eldership of Loring Grant in 1828. Dr. Hibbard's History of the East Genesee Conference records that after the next session of Conference he was sent to the Boston Circuit, three hundred miles around, where he preached thirty times in four weeks. He received that year for his support, with a wife and three children, $60, and not over twenty of it in cash. In 1829 he was appointed to the Friendship Circuit, where he built a church edifice and purchased a parsonage assisted by his presiding elder, John Copeland. He received $120 salary. In 1830 he was sent to Angelica, and the next year to Angelica and Mount Morris. In each place there was an encouraging revival and a house of worship erected. In 1832–33 his charge was Livonia Circuit, which included Lima, where good revivals were held. At the latter place about forty students were converted, and among them was Daniel P. Kidder, whom Brother Benson baptized, received into the Church, and gave him a letter of removal when he went to the Wesleyan University. He was then sent to Penfield, Walworth and Pultneyville, Victor, and Benton. In 1840 he was pastor at Medina, and in 1842 traveled Niagara Circuit, having Israel Chamberlayne for presiding elder. This year one hundred and eighty were received on probation. He was afterward appointed to Webster, Pittsford, Sodus, Alloway and Lock Berlin, Potter, Canega, Bloomfield, Richmond and Canadice, Mount Morris, Henrietta, and Canandaigua District. He thus brought to the presiding eldership an experience of about forty years of toil and travel on twenty different fields, some of which were like our present districts in extent. He resumed his travels again in 1861 at Richmond and Canadice, in 1862 was superannuated, again tried the work, taking Hammondsport in 1863, but finally retired in 1864 to remain superannuated these twenty-four years, yet never an idler in the Lord's cause. Dr. Hibbard says of him, "The name of Jonathan Benson is a synonym of soundness and what we may call conservative reform. As a preacher he can appeal to hundreds and say, "For the seal of mine appostleship are ye in the Lord." Father Benson richly deserved his title of "the Model Superannuate." He was an abiding comfort and a royal support to every preacher so fortunate as to be his pastor. He had learned in his early hardships how to live on a small income, and was such a wise manager that he obtained a competence, drawing nothing from the funds of the church, but generously contributing. The new church enterprise at Fairport early engaged his attentions and he had faith in its success giving it $500. It was a rare privilege to be his pastor; to sit at his feet and listen to those rare experiences of the heroic age of Methodism. But it was the rarest of all to be standing near by like an Elisha while the chariot of flame was winding about his noble form, consuming the cords that held him here, and glowing within in ardent desire to ascend. His keen eye would kindle while we talked and sang of the home and the friends and the Christ in the land that were now not afar off, until he would tearfully and pleadingly exclaim, "O! I should like to go to-day!" His mind was clear and his trust firm to the last. His old friend and venerable compatriot, Dr. F. G. Hibbard, was at the funeral and presented a loving tribute. The remains were deposited in the cemetery close by the church at Victor, where he was twice pastor, where live some of his children and a great many friends.

Robert T. Hancock passed to his reward on the morning of January 9, 1889, from his home in Hemlock Lake, Livingston County, N. Y. His departure was most peaceful and beautiful. He had been for several months failing in strength and inclined to sleep, although on the day previous he walked to his barn. On the morning of his departure his wife saw him twice sleeping calmly. Going to his room for the third time to arrange for his breakfast she found he had passed away; his features brightened up with a divine radiance. He was often heard to speak of his raptures and heavenly visions in the night-time. Lying thus alone in one of these—more of heaven than of earth—God took him. He was born in Bristol, Ontario County, N. Y., March 13, 1811. Serious and prayerful from childhood, he was converted to God at twenty-one years of age. Feeling an imperative call to preach the Gospel, he turned his reading and studies in this direction and attended the seminary at Lima several terms. He joined the Genesee Conference in 1836, having traveled previously two years under the presiding elder. His ministerial appointments in all numbered twenty-one, many of them being circuits embracing from two to six preaching places each. As we look through his ministerial records we note that on every one of his charges through his labors there were more or less conversions. On ten of them there were extensive revivals; and on several new societies were formed and churches and parsonages erected. Brother Hancock possessed intellectual abilities and preaching talent far above the ordinary. These were of the substantial and useful, rather than the showy, order. Consequently, he spent his entire ministerial life and won his victories and garnered his imperishable treasures in the circuits and humble stations. He was first married February 16, 1836, to Miss Mary A. Curtis. The providential significance of his second marriage was the providing for him in his final years a home of comforts, of tender care and rest and happiness till he was taken in joy and victory to the everlasting mansions. He was unpretentious and humble in his claims and demands as to his fields of labor, accounting it the greatest honor and glory that could come to any human being to preach the Gospel anywhere and lead souls to Christ. He loved to preach the Gospel. He preached several times, during the last year of his life, standing in the pulpit upon crutches. He was singularly cheerful and happy, and hopeful as to the present and future of the Church, laboring in all ways to the last for its prosperity at home and abroad.

Otis M. Leggett was born in the town of Rowe, Franklin County, Mass., in the year 1819, and died in the town of Machias, Cattaraugus County, N. Y., February 25, 1889. He was converted at the age of sixteen, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was a studious, self-reliant young man. In 1842 he was received on probation in the New Hampshire Conference. His first appointment was Perkinsville, Vt. In 1843 he was appointed to Moretown Circuit. The same year he was united in marriage with Miss Rosette M. Litchfield, who died in Missouri, in 1882. His fields of labor after his marriage were: Plainfield, Middlesex, Tunbridge, Rochester, and Chelsea, all in Vermont. In 1851 he was transferred to the Black River Conference, and stationed at Potsdam, Fulton, Camden, First Church, Oswego; East Oswego, Mexico, Carthage. From 1863 to 1869 he was a local preacher, and served the New School Presbyterian Church. In the fall of 1870 he applied to the Rock River Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for re-admission. He was re-admitted, but as there was no work for him there he was transferred to Genesee Conference, which was then in session in Warsaw, and was stationed at Cuba and Black Creek, then Coudersport, Friendship, Rushford, Portville, Franklinville, Belfast, Machias. In 1887 he took a supernumerary relation and settled on his farm about four miles east of Machias Village. Some four years ago he was united in marriage with Miss Lizzie Root, of Cuba, N. Y. Brother Leggett was very careful in arranging his business affairs. During the winter before his death he was very active in the revival meetings which were being held in Machias until he was unable to leave his room. Brother Leggett was a clear and strong thinker; his perceptive faculties were quick and forceful. He was a great critic, and was ever ready to express his convictions. He was a man of strict integrity. In the closing hours of his life his mind was clear, calm, and peaceful. He trusted entirely in Jesus Christ and was happy and triumphant. He died in the Lord; he rests from his labors, and his works do follow him.

Morris D. Jackson was born in Georgetown, N.Y., September 28, 1831, and died suddenly at Chautauqua, N. Y., August 10, 1889. At the age of twenty he was converted, and soon after felt it his duty to preach the Gospel, and was granted a license by the Whitesville Quarterly Conference. He began his regular work in the ministry by serving two years under the presiding elder on a circuit which included, with several other points, Greenwood, which was also his last appointment. In 1861 he joined the East Genessee Conference on trial. He was received into full membership in the Conference, and ordained deacon in 1863 and elder in 1865 His appointments were as follows: Allegany, Birdsall, Freemont, West Almond, Cameron, Canaseraga, Scio, Ellicottsville, Machias, Belfast, Hinsdale, Collins, Centerville and Farmersville, Nelson, Almond, Greenwood again, where, near the close of his second year, August 4, 1889, he preached his last sermon, thus closing his ministry on the same charge where he began it. The following day he left Greenwood for Chautauqua, where for seventeen consecutive years he had spent a week or two every season. He was a member of the pioneer class of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle and of the Normal Class of '81. At ten o'clock Saturday morning, apparently in usual health, he attended the devotional hour at the auditorium and gave testimony there of his love of Christ and his cause. Returning to his cottage at the conclusion of that service he complained of not feeling well, and soon after became unconscious for a few moments; but rallying soon he appeared comfortable, and during the afternoon talked freely with a ministerial brother of his life's work and his readiness to depart, thus showing that he thought the end might be near, although none of his friends had any idea that his case was critical. About seven o'clock that evening, without a moment's warning, the end came. He was found ready to depart and be with Christ. Brother Jackson was united in marriage September 15, 1859, with Miss Loverna Freeman. He was a good man, ever faithful to the work assigned him. Quiet and unassuming, yet always genial and kindly, greatly beloved by his brethren in the ministry.

William S. Tuttle was born at Le Roy, N. Y., April 17, 1822, and died at Akron, N. Y., February 10, 1889. He was married to Miss Jane L. Pratt August 25, 1844. He joined the Genesee Conference in September, 1844. For forty-four years he never missed roll-call at the opening session of Conference, except once—and then he was detained by a funeral—until last fall, when he was suffering his last illness. Brother Tuttle served the following charges: Niagara Circuit, Murray, Lewiston, Alexander, Pavilion, Eden and Hamburg, Gowanda, Franklinville, Pike, Asbury and Wesley, Perry, Brockport, Rushford, Portville, Akron, Clinton Street, Lockport; Riverside, Buffalo; Olean District, Le Roy, Walworth, Middleport, Lyndonville, Warsaw, Castile, Clarendon and Hulberton, and Darien. After a continuous service of forty-two years, being somewhat broken in health, he left the effective ranks and moved with his wife to Akron to rest a little, and regain, if possible, his health, at the old home among a host of friends who had known them from their youth. After a year or two, in which his bodily powers failed instead of growing better, the Master called him to the heavenly rest. At the Sabbath evening twilight hour, while the church bells were ringing, he ascended to the great Church in the city above.

Kentucky Conference.

Ajax H. Triplett was born in Washington County, Ky., September 30, 1817. He was converted in Daviess County, Ky., in the fall of 1839. He entered the Kentucky Conference at Maysville, September, 1841, and was ordained deacon in September, 1843, and elder in 1853. He was appointed to the following circuits and stations: Litchfield, Red Bird, Greenupsburg, and located in 1844. In 1850 he was re-admitted into the Indiana Conference, and sent to Green River Circuit in Kentucky, No Creek, Augusta, supernumerary, No Creek again, Green River again, and superannuated in 1856. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss America Corwin, to whom he was married at Greenup, Ky., October 21, 1846. His second wife was Mrs. Hannah D. Stevens, to whom he was married in Harrison County, Ind., August 26, 1862. He removed to Indiana in 1856. In 1884 he removed to Arkansas. In 1887 to Texas. In 1888 to Nebraska, where he resided at the time of his death. Brother Triplett was a man of great firmness and inflexible principle. He sacrificed his property to get away from political perils in Kentucky, having voluntarily freed his slaves before the war of secession. He was so strongly opposed to slavery that he refused to marry a lady otherwise eligible because she would not free her slaves. In 1853 he became a member of the Kentucky Conference, and assisted in its rehabilitation. He was faithful to Methodism in his native State. He was earnest and zealous in his ministry. In times of danger a hero, and always true to God and his conscience. He was a good preacher, a devoted pastor, and did successful work as long as his health permitted. He was faithful unto death, and doubtless has received his crown of life and the fullness of reward.

California Conference.

Otis Gibson was born in Moira, Saint Lawrence County, N. Y., December 8, 1826. He was very early convicted that it was his duty to preach, and he immediately conferred not with flesh and blood, but hearkened to the divine call, though he had planned to make the law his life work. Before reaching the age of twenty he was licensed to preach. At twenty-two he entered Dickinson College. He was compelled to leave school at the end of the first year on account of sickness, brought on by overtaxation. Pulmonary troubles threatened his life, but immediately after graduation he was appointed to China, with head-quarters at Foochow. After some delay, and being married to his now lonely companion, he reached his destination in August, 1855, and immediately commenced the study of the language, of which he acquired sufficient knowledge in a short time to preach in it. He was present when the first convert was baptized, July 14, 1857, and saw within the year twelve others added to the number. They were formed into the first class of Chinese that the Methodist Episcopal Church ever organized. In addition to his regular duties during the years of his stay in China he took time from his hours of rest and affixed references to the Chinese New Testament Scriptures, which are extensively used to this day in all missions in China. The ten years of his life in China were fruitful of good results. On account of the serious illness of some of his family, and his own need of a change, he returned to this country in 1865. For two years after his return he was pastor of the church in Moira. These were years of fruitfulness in the ministry, and inclined him to desire to devote the remainder of his life to our English field. Bishop Thomson, however, urged him to come to California and establish a mission for the Chinese in our midst. Consenting to do so he was transferred in 1868, and no one who has studied the man, the work, and the result has a doubt but that God sent him here. He, very soon after arriving, inaugurated a system of instruction by which the Chinese should be taught the rudiments of English. The second step was to secure the erection of a mission house in San Francisco, which, with his accustomed vigor and success, he entered upon, and on the Christmas of 1870 the fine building at 916 Washington Street was dedicated. At an early day an asylum for Chinese women was opened at the mission house. The good work went on amid all its enemies, and the mission house and Gibson's name were known far and near. Much real success crowned the toilsome years. In these early days God called a young man of rare abilities and fidelity of character into his blessed Gospel, and gave him a commission to help his countrymen to the knowledge of himself. Brother K. Miyama was one of Dr. Gibson's trophies, and was a comfort to him of no usual magnitude. In the midst of his busy life Dr. Gibson found time to attend, as a delegate, one session of our General Conference, and faithfully performed his duties as such. Also to go as delegate to the Evangelical Alliance, as a representative of our Church, and take an active part in its proceedings. Four years he served as a member of the Missionary Committee for this district, and guarded well the interests of our coast work. He was also appointed a delegate to the first Ecumenical Conference of Methodism in London, in 1881, and read an important paper on our mission interests, which was well received. But the end of his active life came suddenly on the 4th of November, 1884, while attending the Preachers' Meeting, being suddenly stricken with paralysis. Although his sufferings at times were excruciating, yet he was always the same patient, humble, resigned Christian sufferer. He was blessed with the right use of his mind until the very last. Great humility and a deep sense of unworthiness were characteristic of his life, but more especially of his later years. When friends kindly suggested that his life had been very useful he would say, "It was not I, it was Christ; he did it all." After four years of patient waiting God called his servant home. On the 25th of last January he was admitted into the Church triumphant.

George Bryant Bowman was born in North Carolina on the first day of May in the year 1812, and died at San Jose, Cal., October 9, 1888. The date of his conversion we are not able to furnish; but the fact of his conversion was so well established as to be known and read of all men, and was of such a character as to give to his religious life more than average positiveness and power. He entered the regular ministry in the State of Missouri when he was about twenty-two years of age. His ordination as deacon was in the year 1837, and as elder in 1839. By the same bishop he was transferred two years later from Missouri to Iowa, where his principal and most fruitful labors were performed amid such difficulties and discouragements as would have sent a less resolute soul from the field in dismay and defeat. Methodism was to him then and ever Christianity in earnest, and he so proclaimed it as to make it a Gospel which was the power of God unto salvation to hundreds and thousands in that now prosperous and so largely Methodist State of Iowa. But Mount Vernon in that State was to become more than any other the scene of his monumental labors as a founder of churches and schools. Here he found great necessities which, to his great faith and courage, meant great opportunities and heroic achievements. To every voice of discouragement his answer was: "What ought to be done must be done, and can be done." Buildings arose one after another—church, seminary, and, finally, colleges—until a full equipped institution of learning, bearing the honored name of Cornell, with a campus of thirty acres, beautiful buildings, one of them bearing his own name as Bowman Hall, a gift from him costing $10,000, now adorns a charming elevation, and is sending out its procession of graduates from year to year to bless the State and nation as well as the memory of the heroic Bowman who was its founder and life-long friend. In Iowa City he was married to Margaret Jane Hill, who, after years of faithfulness in the home and in the Church, passed on to the better life about twelve years ago. He came to California in 1864, and very soon identified himself with this Conference and all the interests of Methodism in his adopted Conference and home. Our university found in him a friend and patron whose wise counsels and generous benefactions were always an inspiration to the trustees along the years in which he was a member of the board of management and control. His old-time evangelistic impulse and revival fire were easily enkindled in his later years, and he often responded to calls for help from the charges of our Conference. His last attempt at public address was at an anniversary of the Bowman Fund in our Sunday-school, an endowment now nearly $1,000, the interest of which is used to assist poor children in attiring themselves for attendance at Sunday-school. When he made known to us his purpose to bestow his Conference Mutual Aid Insurance to the new church movement in East San Jose, it was so in keeping with his record along the years as scarcely to create surprise in the minds of any who knew him. Few men have ever used limited means more wisely or set in motion streams of influence which are destined to accomplish more for humanity. His love for his brethren made him desire intensely to meet them again in Conference session, and prompted him to what he had not the strength to endure; and while here, one year ago, he was prostrated by a severe attack from which he did not rally, and gradually sinking, he passed peacefully away a few weeks after the Conference session.

Thomas Skillman Dunn was born near Cincinnati, O., November 11, 1831. His call to the ministry was emphatic and satisfactory. He was not disobedient to the heavenly calling, but immediately set himself at the work of preparation. After some time spent in the Ohio Wesleyan University, he was received into the Cincinnati Conference in 1854. He had been previously married. On the 3d of August, 1853, he was united in holy matrimony with Miss Freelove M. Conklin. From the time he entered the Conference until his death, the character of his appointments indicated his popularity with the Church and the confidence of the appointing authorities. Extensive revivals were witnessed at almost every place of his labors in Ohio. He went to California in 1860, only a few days before the close of the session of the California Conference of that year. A sermon preached by him in Santa Clara during the Conference session secured his appointment at San Jose, where he filled three full terms of the pastorate during his life's work. His other appointments, given in their chronological order, were Placerville, Virginia, Nev.; Oakland, Napa, Central Church, San Francisco; Grass Valley, Stockton, Alameda, and Sixth Street, Sacramento. He closed his labors where he began them on this coast, nearly twenty-seven years before, in San Jose. Concerning this place, where he spent more years of his ministry than in any other city, a curious history must be written. At each of his three pastorates he buried a child, though the last died shortly after he had retired from work. The bodies of the three children lie side by side with his own in the cemetery of San Jose. During his second pastorate the church was burned. It was a church that had been built while he was laboring in Virginia, and for the time was considered very superior in taste and arrangement. The burning was no doubt the work of an incendiary, and done because a school for teaching Chinese had been started there. The occasion drew out the most powerful energies of the man. His eloquent appeals stirred the city as never before. Hearts were opened, money flowed in, and soon there rose over the ashes of their former church a much larger and more elegant structure. About four months before the close of the third pastorate in San Jose his health gave way, and at the ensuing Conference he submitted to the severest trial of his life—he left the effective ranks of the Methodist ministry. He had completed twenty-seven years of unbroken pastoral labor on the coast. He was devoted to God and the work of the ministry. With extra abilities for business pursuits, and with temptations constantly presented him to make a large success in money investments, he never yielded for one moment to any inducement to turn aside from the work of a Methodist pastor. He measured up to the time in which he lived, and met his responsibilities in reference thereto. We have seen how he stood up for the work of evangelizing the Chinese. Just so he stood up for the slave in the Cincinnati Conference, in the forefront of the antislavery movement.

Central New York Conference.

Edwin G. Bush was born at West Dryden, N. Y., December 7, 1806, and died at his home, Syracuse, N. Y., November 6, 1888. His religious life began at eight years, at which time he began to pray and felt his "heart warmed," as he expressed it, "by a new emotion," and he felt it was the love of God. At thirteen his experience deepened, and at fourteen he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was united in marriage with Miss Jerusha Thompson in 1831, and in 1837 he joined the Oneida Conference on trial. The outline of the labors of Brother Bush as a traveling preacher, and the list of places where he served as a pastor are soon told: Winsor, Broome, Berkshire, Nichols, Greene, Homer, Cayuga, Scipio, McGrawville, Elbridge, Camillus, Manlius, Madison, Chittenango, Hamilton, Morrisville, Fayetteville, Cardiff, Onondaga, Euclid, Lysander, Cicero, superannuated in 1875 and settled in Syracuse. But while this gives the itinerary of his ministerial career, there are results which can hardly be measured. On Winsor Charge three hundred were added to the church; on Broome Circuit over one hundred. At Berkshire the church property, which had been sold on a judgment, was redeemed, and a good congregation gathered. At Nichols nearly two hundred were added to the church. Brother Bush occupied many important positions in the Conference—journalist eight years, one of the stewards for fourteen years, and acting secretary and treasurer of the board. He was faithful and efficient in all. As a superannuated member of the Conference he has been eminently a blessing in the Church and among the brethren with whom he lived. In closing a brief autobiography which he prepared to present to his Conference, he says: "Twelve years of my superannuated life have been spent in the Centenary Church of Syracuse. That church understands how to make a superannuated preacher happy. My twelve years have passed pleasantly in relation with its ministry. No word of unkindness has cast a shadow thereon."

William Hosmer was born in South Blamford, Mass., May 29, 1810, and died at his residence in Auburn, N. Y., June 17, 1889. He was converted at Kanona, N. Y., in 1820. In 1831 he was received on trial in the Genesee Conference. At the last session of the "Old Genesee," in 1847, he was reelected to the General Conference, having been first elected in 1843, and subsequently in 1851 and 1855. At the General Conference of 1848 he was elected to the editorship of the Northern Christian Advocate, to which he was re-elected in 1852. His articles published in the Quarterly Review were: A Review of Dr. Dick, on "Covetousness;" of Professor Caldwell, on "Christian Perfection;" and the "Prohibitory Liquor Law." For a number of years he wrote the "leaders" for at least two dailies. And thus he worked on, for it was his nature to do so, until, stricken with paralysis, he could do it no longer. After this sad event he said: "I have come to know, when too late to be of much use to me, that God intended men to go to bed to sleep, and not take three or four editorials with me, as I have done, and then get up at three o'clock to write them out." Much later he wrote: "One of my greatest afflictions is the fact that I cannot work, for even life without the privilege of working is a doubtful blessing. But I have hope in God that I shall by faith attain the glorious consummation which is hastening on." At 6 A. M. the 17th of June, 1889, this was attained, and his great soul escaped from the work-house in which it had lived so long and wrought so well.

Albert Ensign was born in Pitcher, N. Y., February 20, 1817, and died at Union Springs, N. Y., November 22, 1888. In 1840 he married Olive R. Smith, who was also a citizen of the town of Pitcher. Brother Ensign was converted about the year 1850 or 1851. In 1852 he received a local preacher's license, and filled out the last six months of the pastoral term of Rev. Peter Bridgman, on the Pitcher Charge, Brother Bridgman being unable to continue his ministrations because of sickness. In 1853 he joined the Oneida Conference, and his successful ministry demonstrated the fact that he was called of God to this most important work. His appointments were as follows: Lisle, Summer Hill, Montezuma, Union Springs, Cayuga, Ledyard, Varna, North Pitcher, Union Valley, Scott, McLean, Little Marsh, Millerton, North Chemung, Alpine, and North Lansing. On all of these charges he had success, and on some of them great and sweeping revivals. Brother Ensign was a great lover of children, and this love, which seemed to be natural to him, was cultivated and increased in his mingling with them as a pedagogue, and found its greatest satisfaction and usefulness in the Sabbath-school and among the young people of the Church, with whom he was always popular. Two years ago he was superannuated and moved to Union Springs, where he died in great peace.

Moses Lyon was born at Milford, N. Y., April 18, 1809, and died at his home in Bridgeport, N. Y., March 24, 1889. Brother Lyon was converted at the age of sixteen years, and while still in young manhood was made a class teacher and licensed to exhort. In 1836 he was recommended to the Black River Conference for admission into the traveling connection, having previously served two years as a supply. He was admitted and received his appointment to North Manlius, where he began his long and useful ministry. In many respects Brother Lyon was a strong man. He was a fervent, solid, evangelical preacher, mighty in prayer, and a singer with peculiar and touching pathos of voice and style. Without art or special training of his vocal powers, he would move an audience to raptures or to tears with his Christian songs. He preserved his power in prayer almost to the last. He was a wise administrator and good pastor, winning souls by careful but thorough presentation of the truth both publicly and privately. The fields of labor occupied by Brother Lyon were as follows: Beginning as a supply at Williamstown and Granby, he joined Black River Conference in 1836, and was stationed at North Manlius, Granby, admitted into full connection in 1838, and stationed at Clay, Lysander, Clay again, Liverpool, Rose, Wolcott, Carthage, Clayton, De Pauville, Rodman, Bellville, Mannsville, Van Buren, Brownville, De Pauville again, Brownville again, Black River, Bridgeport, Central New York Conference; Elbridge, Centerville, Collamer, Bridgeport again, superannuated in 1879, since which time he has quietly lived and labored as he could to aid in the good work to which his best energies had been given. On the Sabbath of his translation—for it was so quiet a change that it might be called so—he had not been to church, and while his wife was helping him across the room he sank down and was gone from the scenes of his earthly toils and triumph. Brother Lyon was twice married. His first marriage was with Miss Mary A. Halliday; his second was with Miss Ann Baxter.

James W. Wilson closed a long and painful illness in death, at his late residence in Syracuse, N. Y., February 14, 1889. He was born in Williamsport, Pa., February 14, 1822. At the age of eighteen, while in college, he was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in Meadville. He united with the East Genesee Conference, on probation, at its session of 1849, and was ordained deacon in 1851, and elder in 1853. He spent twenty-eight years in the effective pastorate, serving in the following charges: Springwater, Avon, Hornellsville, Rushville, Rochester, Sodus, Port Gibson, Seneca Falls, Geneva, Trumansburg, Lodi, Canastota, West Eaton and Fayetteville. During his second term at Rushville, while enduring the extraordinary work of building a new church, his health failed to such an extent that he was compelled to take a supernumerary relation, which he retained for four years, from 1867 to 1869, residing at Trumansburg, and doing considerable work as a supply. He then resumed the work so dear to his heart, and for ten years continued to preach the Gospel in the regular pastorate. He was, however, far from being a well man. For twenty years he had suffered and struggled against a disease which finally ended his life. Seven years ago last October, at the session of the Central New York Conference, of which he had become a member by the changes of Conference boundaries, he laid off his armor, and returned to a beautiful home in Syracuse, from which he ascended to his crown. He was wedded to Miss Phœbe Phillips, of Gorham, August 26, 1851. She was to him his chief earthly support in sickness, and with her son, J. W. Wilson, Esq., of Syracuse, sorrowfully closed his eyes in death. As a man, Brother Wilson was upright and full of integrity. He was of such a character that he won the confidence of all classes with whom he came in contact, whether in the Church or in the world. As a Christian, he made no pretensions which he did not sustain by his life. He lived a consistent Christian life and strove to adorn his profession by the practical virtues of religion. At the same time he had a well-defined, deep, and glowing Christian experience, which was founded on God's word, and was well wrought out by the Holy Spirit. As a preacher he was painstaking and thorough in the preparation of his sermons, methodical in arrangement, evangelistic in thought and spirit, earnest and forcible in delivery. Despising all sensational methods of preaching, his purpose was manifestly to build up character into permanent goodness through the word of God. As might be expected, death found our brother a victor. He was ready to depart and be with God.

Michigan Conference.

James H. Richards was born in Wayne County, Mich., September 16, 1835. He was converted in childhood, and early united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was admitted on trial in the Michigan Conference in 1864. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Scott, and an elder by Bishop Clark. He was never strong physically. For years he was in very poor health, and at times was a great sufferer. Poor health compelled him to desist from labor which he would otherwise have gladly performed. His charges, as pastor, were: Caloma, Silver Creek, South Haven, Mill Brook, Kendall, and Fewville. At one time his sight failed him. Recovering from this, and again in the midst of toil, he was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs, and again disabled, and made a sufferer for the rest of life. He was married in 1861 to Miss Jennie McMillan. This devoted wife has shared with him faithfully the sorrows and joys of these years. In his last illness for seven weeks he was confined to his bed. Patiently he sank into rest in his home in South Haven, December 29, 1888.

Carmi Clarke Olds was born March 21, 1815, and died November 22, 1888, at the ripe age of seventy-three years eight months and one day. On the evening of September 5, 1830, he was consciously converted. He immediately joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the age of twenty he became a student at the Genesee Wesleyan Seminary and was graduated in due time in the classical course. He immediately took high rank as a teacher, shortly after becoming principal of schools at Penfield. While in this position he formed the acquaintance of the one who for forty-seven years shed the radiance of a wifely companionship over his entire subsequent career. In 1846 Brother Olds went West and accepted the position of president of the Rock River Seminary, at Mount Morris, Ill., and while occupying this position joined the Rock River Conference. On account of impaired health, in 1850, he resigned this position and moved to Michigan, being duly transferred to the Michigan Conference. Within the bounds of this Conference he lived, labored, and died. His work was continuous except as his peculiar gifts as a teacher put him in demand for that work at intervals which appear in the outline of his active work. The record of his labors is as follows: South Albion, Saginaw, Congress Street, Detroit; Chair of Natural Sciences in Albion College, principal of Lansing Academy, Presiding Elder of Lansing District, Presiding Elder of Niles District, Parma, Quincy, First Church, Lansing; Vermontville, superannuated, Grand Ledge, again superannuated. Brother Olds was a substantial man. Strength of purpose, studiousness of habit, dignity of manner, blended with geniality of spirit, were his chief personal traits. He moved with a quiet but persistent momentum to the accomplishment of his purposes. He succeeded not so much by the dash or enterprise as by quiet persistence in well-directed plans. He was endowed with a large administrative faculty. Wise in counsel, mature in judgment, and prompt at reaching conclusions, he was a pillar of strength in whatever place he occupied. Brother Olds was a man of broad views and generous impulses. He studied questions comprehensively. Liberal in interpreting principles, he was never surprised into a defensive attitude. He anticipated the onslaught of sciences, "falsely so called," and so set forth truth in its scientific aspects as to make it invulnerable to attack. Those who witnessed his lucid defense of any fundamental truth were at once inspired with a strong confidence in its scientific and philosophic impregnability. His literary style was chaste, concise, flowing, sometimes epigrammatic. He loved literature and was familiar with the classics, both ancient and modern. He sedulously cultivated the classic taste. In the pulpit Brother Olds was always interesting and instructive. He did not have the gift of oratory, yet he was always eloquent. Mashaling the results of ample, fearless, and patient research into line he massed them for the upholding of some grand truth, he never failed to effectually counteract error; he pursued it relentlessly into its subtle literary hiding places, exposed its fallacies and destroyed its power. He had no sympathy with the "liberalism" of the day, but with a natural sturdiness of style and a logic that was invincible, he demolished the defenses of heterodoxy. His diction was chaste, his spirit tender, his argument conclusive, his conclusion persuasive. In personal character Professor Olds was fundamentally a Christian man. He was a converted man; he knew what it was to have a "change of heart." He had an experience and was able to analyse it; it was emotionally deep and to himself entirely satisfactory; it admitted of no doubts and was uniform alike as a matter of intense consciousness and in its quiet and conservative manifestation. Genuine, sincere, constant, there was no excess of manifestation, there was simply a Christian man scrupulously conscientious, quiet to reserve, modest to reticence, but solid, earnest, clear-headed and pure, a man with an unblemished past, with a hopeful future, a man whose presence was an inspiration and whose counsels were a benediction. He was a cheerful Christian; endowed with a genial temperament, Christianity added grace and charm to its manifestation. In his later life he knew sorrow; his heart was crushed with a grief that must be nameless here.

Isaac Taylor was born July 30, 1823, in the town of Chatham, Lower Canada, and died October 3, 1888, at his late home in Dawson, Kidder County, Dak. He was converted in 1841. Brother Taylor commenced his itinerant ministry as a supply on the Dundee Circuit. In 1849, at the Conference, held in Adrian, commencing September 5, he was admitted on trial into the Michigan Conference, where his name remained until transferred by the Master to the "church of the firstborn," in glory. He was appointed that year to Hudson Circuit. His next appointment was South Hillsdale, where he met and married Miss Mary Kirby, who for thirty-seven years stood faithfully by his side, entering heartily into his plans and labors, and sharing with him all the joys and the sorrows incident and peculiar to the itinerant minister's lot, until his transfer to the Church triumphant. His subsequent appointments were: Palmyra, Jonesville, White Pigeon, and Tecumseh, where his health failed; and he was entered on the "superannuated" list until 1859, when he was made "supernumerary" and supplied Girard Circuit. In 1860 he was appointed to Jonesville the second time. Here his health failed, and he was superannuated again in 1861. He was again made effective in 1863. His subsequent appointments were as follows: Marengo, Reading, Girard the second time, Parma, Bellevue, Homer, Central Church, Lansing; Coldwater, Albion District, Marengo, Kalamazoo, Niles District, Caloma. Here his health failed to that extent that he asked for and received a superannuated relation at the Conference held at Bay View, in September, 1887, after thirty-seven years of effective service in almost all classes of appointments in the Michigan Conference. He soon after removed with his wife to Dawson, Dak., where all of his children had previously gone to make for themselves homes in that new country. He remained there among his children until his death. He represented the Michigan Conference at the General Conference in 1880, and again in Philadelphia in 1884. Our brother always felt a deep interest in our school at Albion. The first ten-dollar bill he ever had he gave to its support, and continued to contribute to its needs according to his ability during his active ministry, and two of his four children were graduated from Albion College. He was a generous and a cheerful giver to every worthy object. His heart and pocket always responded generously to the necessities of his less fortunate brethren in the ministry. As a preacher he had few equals, and fewer superiors, in the Michigan Conference. He was uniformly successful and popular in all the positions to which he was called of God and the Church. Such a life could not fail of a glorious termination. His daughter says in a letter to the writer, written soon after his death: "Perhaps something in regard to father's life since coming here might be interesting to you. He seemed happy to be here with all his children again; yet many times his thoughts would revert to his life-work, and he would long to be back again with his dear brethren in the ministry. He was a great help to our young Methodist pastor here, in his revival meetings last winter, preaching and laboring in the meetings as his health would permit. When his last illness came, the last of September, he told us 'death was near,' and singing and shouting the praises of God he drew near the close of life." He died peacefully. So that those of the family who were with him at the time did not perceive just when his freed spirit took its departure.

William M. Coplin, pastor of the Haven Methodist Episcopal Church, Jackson, died suddenly of apoplexy, in that city, on Wednesday afternoon August 21, 1889. Brother Coplin was born April 5, 1828, in the town of Ira, N. Y. In 1848 he came to Michigan, and on February 1, of the following year, he was married to Sarah C. Fish, of LeRoy. At this place, in the fall of the same year, he was converted, and at once joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1856 he joined the Michigan Annual Conference, of which he continued an active member until death. Brother Coplin's Conference appointments have been as follows, in the order named: Marengo, Charlotte, Duplain, Grand Ledge, Moscow, Union City, Eaton Rapids, Portland, Mason, Buchanan, Decatur, Lawton, Cassopolis, Buchanan again as supply, Holland, Spring Lake, Concord, Liberty, Litchfield, Parma, Haven Church, Jackson. Our departed Brother Coplin was a "workman that needeth not to be ashamed." He did not shrink from labor and responsibility. He ever worked up to the measure of his strength. Indeed, his zeal for God's cause often urged him beyond the limit where less self-sacrificing men would go. He literally wore out in the service of his Lord. As our departed brother had often expressed a wish that he might "die in the harness," so he "ceased at once to work and live." Without a moment's warning he was stricken down while helping the workmen to build the platform on which he and God's ministers were to stand and proclaim the word in the tent consecrated to evangelistic work. That God's work might go on, he was willing to be a "hewer of wood or drawer of water." Converted in early manhood, Brother Coplin grew in the Christian life, like the cedar for symmetry, and like the palm "planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season." With shrinking modesty he yielded to God's call to preach the Gospel. He was a clear and forcible expounder of the unadulterated word. His appeals to the unconverted to be reconciled to God were full of love and tender pathos. He united with his sterling Christian manhood a sweet simplicity and gentleness of nature which one does not find every day, even in gospel ministers. In the death of Brother Coplin the Michigan Conference has lost an honored member, the Haven Church a beloved pastor, and his stricken family an affectionate husband and loving father.

J. C. Ambrose was born in Pickaway County, O., September 1, 1848. At the age of seven he removed with his father to Illinois, where the family resided until he was about fourteen. Then came our country's call to patriotic hearts. Our brother heard that call and responded by joining the One Hundred and Thirteenth Ohio Volunteers, and to the cause of freedom he gave three years of faithful service. In 1872 he joined the Cincinnati Conference, where he labored successfully for eleven years in the following fields: Clarksville, Sardinia, Sinking Springs, Marshville, Lockington and Winchester. These were years of hard and exacting service, and at their expiration he was granted a location. But the fire burned within him, and unable to content himself in inactivity, he served as a supply in the North Indiana Conference for two years, and then came to Michigan, being received into the Michigan Conference at Lansing in 1884, and appointed to Mancelona, which charge he served for the full term of three years, when he was assigned to Cadillac, where he spent one year to the satisfaction of all. At the last session of our Conference he was appointed, by Bishop Merrill, missionary in Nevada. He arrived at Winnemuca, Nev., September 25 last, and entered upon the arduous labors of a Methodist itinerant in that field, performing his duties with such zeal, ability, and tact as to win the universal respect and admiration of the people. Scarcely three months had passed when the end came. With several friends he had gone on a hunting excursion to the Jackson Creek Mountain some sixty miles distant. It was Saturday night, December 15. Weary with the day's sport, he had just retired, when, suddenly as a thunderbolt out of a clear sky, came the angel of death. Once or twice he breathed heavily, and before his companions could realize that danger was even near, the "spirit took its flight." Brother Ambrose was a man of fine physique. He had an excellent voice and a pleasing address, was an able expositor of Scripture, and a fearless advocate of truth. In social life he was genial and companionable; in his home he was a devoted husband and a faithful parent, keeping that retreat which forms the safety of the nation a center of pure affection.

Cincinnati Conference.

Jeremiah B. Ellsworth was born in Clarke County, O., November 27, 1809, and died of paralysis, after twenty-four hours' illness, at his home in Xenia, O., April 30, 1889. In May, 1838, he was licensed to preach, and admitted on trial in the Ohio Conference at the session held in Columbus in the fall of 1838. He served the following charges: West Milton, Jamestown, Marysville, Wilmington, Mechanicsburg, Franklin, Germantown, Clarksville, Goshen, Union, New Carlisle, Miami, McKendree, Cincinnati; Lockland, Goshen second term, Fremont, Jamestown second term, New Burlington, Camden, Concord, Gaddis Chapel, Dayton; Seven Mile, Brandt, Addison, Gordon, and Oldtown. In 1844 he was married to Miss Catherine Keagey. Brother Ellsworth's ministerial life covered one-half of the century, on the anniversary of which—April 30th—he died. He was a man of blameless life. No one, perhaps, ever succeeded more completely in living with a conscience void of offense toward God and all mankind. His tender and sensitive nature and his almost morbid conscientiousness led him to abstain from all appearance of evil, and to live constantly with that careful circumspection which disarms criticism. He won all hearts by gentleness, modesty, kindness, goodness. His religion was of the kind that shines, rather than utters a loud report. It made him a cheerful companion in the social circle, a happy husband and father in the midst of his family, and an "Israelite in whom there was no guile" in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation. His theological library was not large, but it was carefully selected and thoroughly studied. Even down to old age he retained his intense relish for the works of Wesley, Fletcher, and Watson. In the pulpit, with a tremulous, sympathetic voice, he never failed to command a hearing. Dignified in manner, chaste in style, and gifted greatly as a singer, in his early ministry he possessed many elements of the successful preacher. He was a faithful, laborious pastor. The additions to the Church, through his ministry, were numbered by thousands; for seldom did he fail to secure a quickening of believers and the conversion of sinners on the charges he served. Brother Ellsworth's health was so broken by the incessant labors and constant exposures of his long itinerant life that he was compelled reluctantly, about ten years ago, to retire from the effective ranks, and for several years he resided in the city of Dayton. A few years ago he removed to Xenia, which has since been his home. On Easter Sunday he was at church for the last time, and it was observed by the congregation how greatly he seemed to enjoy the hymns and the discourse, on the theme which never failed to stir his soul—the resurrection. On Monday evening, April 29, sitting by his fireside, in company with his wife, the summons came suddenly. Prostrated by a stroke of paralysis, he was rendered unconscious, and gradually grew worse until the afternoon on the following day, when he fell asleep in Jesus.

Charles Wesley Ketcham was born in Hebron, N. Y., on the 18th of May, 1830, and died on the 13th of May, 1889. In his boyhood he worked on a farm, attending the neighboring public schools as opportunity served. He worked for one year in a tannery; and spent two years acquiring the trade of blacksmith. At the age of twenty-one he entered the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware. His plan for his life-work may be conjectured by the fact that he selected what was then known as the biblical course. Completing that curriculum in three years, he was graduated in 1854. His zeal for education and his indomitable perseverance were manifested by the fact that he supported himself through his school life. He was married September 5, 1854, to Miss Mary D. Parkison, who survives him. In 1854 he was received on trial in the North Ohio Conference. He served one year on Cardington Circuit. The Conference was divided in 1855, and by that division he became a member of the Central Ohio Conference, in which his appointments were, Little Sandusky and Wyandot, Kenton, Sidney, Bellefontaine, Chaplain of Ninety-sixth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and First Church, Toledo. At the session of the Cincinnati Conference held in Ripley in 1866 he was transferred to this Conference and stationed at Morris Chapel, Cincinnati. He served the full pastoral term of three years, during which he was abundant in labors, securing subscriptions for the building of the present Saint Paul Church. He was stationed at Asbury Chapel, Central Church, Springfield; Presiding Elder of West Cincinnati District, Christie Chapel, Central Church, Springfield, again; Hillsborough, Presiding Elder of Cincinnati District. In the early part of this Conference year he was compelled to cease work, but after a few weeks he rallied and resumed his labors, but the season of his activity was short. His disease was gastritis, contracted in the siege of Vicksburg. The surgeon told him then that he must go home or die. He turned homeward with reluctant feet, bearing the disorder which was to abide with him through the lingering years till death should claim him. His very latest official act was the baptism of the grandchild who was brought from New York to receive his blessing. About ten o'clock Monday morning the end came, and a pure, manly, Christian spirit passed from the communion of the Church on earth to the communion and fellowship of the Church triumphant in Heaven. Unpretending in manner, he was a genial friend; deliberate in thought, he was a prudent counselor: a careful student of human nature and familiar with the doctrine, discipline, and usages of his Church, his advice and decisions commanded respect. He was a trustee of the Methodist Episcopal Church by General Conference action; he was president of the Cincinnati Conference Missionary Society up to the time of his death, through a long series of years; he was president of the Conference Educational Society, the last three years; and was serving his third year as presiding elder of the Cincinnati District. As a preacher, he was clear in his expositions, incisive in his appeals, correct in his doctrinal statements, tender in exhortation, and Christ-like in spirit. He was a faithful pastor, full of sympathy, especially for the afflicted, the aged, and the poor.

Ephraim M. Cole was born near West Union, O., May 21, 1821, and died at the home of his son near Georgetown, O., June 29, 1889, aged sixty eight years. When starting in life he chose the law as his profession. He was admitted to, and practiced at, the West Union bar for about five years. He was happily converted to God in March, 1844, and soon after was profoundly conscious that God called him to the gospel ministry. After a long struggle between his convictions of duty and his desire to follow the law, he yielded to the divine call and entered the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1850. In that Conference he spent fifteen years of his ministry, filling the best appointments in the gift of the Conference. In 1865 he was one of eighteen who left the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and united with the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was appointed presiding elder, and traveled his district for three years, when he was transferred to the Kansas Conference, where he remained some two or three years, but was forced to return to Ohio on account of the affliction of his wife. He entered the Cincinnati Conference in 1873 and was appointed to Sinking Springs, Bowersville, Sardinia, Winchester, Lynchburg, Feesburg, and Bantam. This was his last appointment. At the following Conference, on acount of failing health, he took a superannuated relation, and so remained until his death. Brother Cole, in the days of his vigorous manhood, was a preacher of marked ability, and many souls were won to Christ and the Church through his earnest and faithful ministry. He was a man of intense convictions, and in every moral conflict was on the side of God and the right. A friend says of him, "He had the courage of a hero coupled with the sympathetic tenderness of a woman." His religious experience was clear and joyous. His sister writes: "In 1873 or 1874, while he was stopping with me, he received the blessing of perfect love. One night, after family prayer, he was enabled by faith to accept Christ as a complete Saviour, and with tears of joy praise him for such unbounded love. He always loved his calling, but now he seemed to get a new inspiration. When leaving our house for his work he said to me, 'O, am I not going to preach a glorious Gospel, a perfect and complete salvation from all sin!' This was his constant theme." During the closing years of his life he was greatly afflicted, paralysis having weakened both body and mind.

Allen W. Tibbitts was born near Forestville, N. Y., June 3, 1822. He married Eliza Fisher, May 29, 1849. She shared with him the toils and trials of the itinerancy for nearly forty years, and mourns his decease. He was received into the Ohio Conference in 1846, and was ordained deacon in 1848, and elder in 1850. His appointments in the Ohio Conference were: Mount Pleasant, Georgetown, Wilmington, New Lexington, and Jamestown. In the Cincinnati Conference they were Amelia, Madisonville, Venice, Monroe, Camden, Miamisburg, Red Lion and Springborough, Lewisburg, New Paris, Jamestown, King's Creek, Mingo and Tabor, New Jasper, Martinsville, Clarksville, and New Burlington. Brother Tibbitts was an honored, effective, and useful Methodist preacher, true to the doctrines and usages of Methodism, and always enjoyed a deep personal experience of the salvation of Christ in his own heart. He was an earnest advocate of the cause of temperance, with positive convictions on the subject from early life. In [illegible] he took a superannuated relation to the Conference, and moved to Jamestown, O., where he tried to do something toward self-support; but this brought upon him a burden of care and anxiety which his enfeebled condition for some months before his death ill fitted him to bear; yet his faith in Christ was unshaken, and his love for God's cause and Church was constant and uninterrupted. He had the confidence and love of the membership of the church at Jamestown, which will long remember his earnest prayers. He was the friend and helper of the pastor Rev. F. M. Clemans, who was his pastor for three years. During the three years he preached frequently, and often with great power, and was especially alive to every interest of the church. He attended the love-feast in the afternoon and spoke of the efforts of his life to keep a clear record and meet all his obligations. On Thursday morning, May 9, 1889, he arose from his bed as usual. Soon after his wife was aroused by his heavy breathing, found him seated on a chair with his head leaning backward, his hands hanging at his side, and unconscious, and in a few moments "he was not, for God took him." Thus, after thirty-eight years in the active ministry and nearly four years as a superannuate, he closed his labors on earth to enter the rest of heaven.

William Mahon was born in Tyrrell's Pass, County of West Meath, Ireland, August 12, 1836. At the age of thirteen, with his parents and their family, he emigrated to this country, and for five years they lived near Xenia, O. Here in his twentieth year Brother Mahon was converted and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1859 he was received on trial by the Iowa Conference. His appointments were: Agency, Floris, and Blakesburg. During the year 1861, the war having begun, Brother Mahon felt it his duty to help defend his adopted country, therefore at the session of his Conference in 1862 he located and at once enlisted as a private, but soon was commissioned as captain of Company E, in the Thirty-sixth Iowa Volunteers. After more than two years of active service at the front, he was stricken down by disease and sent North to one of the hospitals in Cincinnati. After he became convalescent, he was appointed commander of McLean Barracks, a position he occupied until the close of the war when, with his regiment, he was mustered out at Davenport, Ia. He desired to at once re-enter the ministry, but being ruined in health from disease, and suffering from a gun-shot wound that prevented him from doing effective service, he was forced to choose some other occupation. He, therefore, returned to Cincinnati and entered the office of a real estate agent, where, being a fine scribe, he found work as a copyist. He at once united with Wesley Chapel, then under the pastorate of Dr. J. W. Weakley, and very few Sabbaths were there when it was possible for him to preach, but that his services were earnestly desired in the pulpits of Cincinnati and Covington. The office work being very confining, as soon as possible he entered upon out-door work, and in 1867 he removed to near Madisonville, O., where on the 15th day of October, 1867, he married Mary L. Darling, who with three daughters and two sons survives him. His health gradually improving, and having a longing to return to the work of the ministry, when the opportunity was offered in 1871 of supplying as junior preacher New Vienna Circuit in this Conference he gladly accepted. In 1872 he was re-admitted to the Cincinnati Conference and his appointments were as follows: Old Town, Sardinia, Butlerville, New Boston, Miami, North Bend, Cheviot, and New Carlisle. During these years he did faithful and effective work, that will count not alone in time, but also in eternity. Brother Mahon was active in all things in which he engaged. As a student, pastor, preacher, he was always in earnest. Above the average in his preaching, he loved nothing better than to tell the story of the cross. No appointment was too hard. He never had an easy one. No person was too insignificant for his notice. Even the children knew him and loved him. But the seeds of disease that had been sown during his army life began to develop. Yet no one scarce suspected him to be a sick man, so willing, so ready, so anxious was he to do his King's business. When he was sent to New Carlisle he felt it would be his last charge, and his resolve was to do harder and more earnest work than ever. But disease was fast telling upon him; the body grew weaker and weaker, but the spirit within spurred it on. He visited the sick, stood in his pulpit and preached, engaged in the Sunday-school work when he should have been in his bed. He preached his last sermon June 9, "Children's day," then went home tired, weary, "O, so weary!" The great longing was for rest. To a brother minister he said, "O how I want to rest." On monday night, July 1, 1889, aged almost fifty-three years, he was not; for God had taken him home to the land of everlasting rest.

Jeremiah H. Bayliss was born at Wednesbury, England, December 20, 1835, and went home to heaven from Bay City, Mich., on the morning of August 14, 1889. When two years of age his parents came to this country and located in Western New York. He was converted at the age of eighteen. In 1857 he was received on trial in the Genesee Conference and preached two years on the Boston Circuit. In 1859 he was ordained deacon and was united in marriage to Sarah Ann Britton. The following two years he preached in Attica, and in 1861 was ordained elder. Then he spent two years at Cuba, two at Warsaw, and one at Perry. In 1866 he was transferred to the Rock River Conference and was stationed at Park Avenue Church, Chicago, where he remained three years. In 1869 he was appointed to Trinity Church, Chicago, where he preached two years. In 1871 he was transferred to the Southeast Indiana Conference and appointed to Roberts Park, Indianapolis; Trinity Church of the same city, and Roberts Park again. During the year 1878 he made an extended tour in foreign lands. In 1879 he was transferred to the Detroit Conference and stationed at Central Church, Detroit, where he continued three years. In 1882 he was transferred to the Cincinnati Conference and stationed at Walnut Hills. In 1884 he was elected editor of the Western Christian Advocate, and in 1888 was re-elected by the remarkably large vote of three hundred and forty-one out of three hundred and eighty-one. He received the honorary degree of D.D. in 1873 at the Ohio Wesleyan University, and that of LL.D. at Albion, Mich., in 1887. Brother Bayliss was a delegate to the General Conferences of 1884 and 1888, in which he honored the Conference that sent him, and distinguished himself as an able debater and a wise legislator. He was a member of the committee on the revision of the Methodist Hymn-Book, on which he rendered most valuable and appreciative service. He regarded his true life-work to be that of the Christian ministry. To this mission he devoted himself with signal ability and success; in all his appointments winning souls to Christ, edifying believers, and defending the truth as it is in Jesus. As editor of the Western Christian Advocate he achieved distinction. The paper under his care was high-toned, instructive, and influential, and encouraged and aided enterprises calculated to improve society, and elevate the morals of the people. He wrote with great facility and force, each year increasing his ability as a thinker and writer. His style was clear, strong, and direct, less distinguished for its rhetorical beauty than for its logical, convincing power. He cherished a deep interest in the benevolent enterprises of the Church, and rendered in their behalf valuable assistance by pen, speech, and influence. He was a member of the executive committee of the Freedmen's Aid Society, and defended its policy on the color question with courage and ability, and eloquently advocated the interests of this grand enterprise of our Church. Brother Bayliss had for months felt that he could not live long, and had so spoken to intimate friends. He desired to live, not for self, but for Christ and humanity. He said, "I do not want to die yet. There are many things to be done for God and the Church that I want to help about before I close my work, but God knows best, and I can trust him."

Japan Conference.

[Should have appeared last year.]

Iwai Chiukichi was born in Chiba Ken, Japan, March, 1855. The Gospel first reached him through the ministrations of Brother J. Soper while the latter was preaching in Shimo-sa in the year 1877. The next year he received baptism and united with the Church. At that time there were no believers in his village, so that his Christianity aroused much hatred and opposition; even his father was found among his bitterest enemies. But his faith remained firm as a rock while he publicly announced his new belief. As a reward of faithful witnessing among his friends and relatives many were led to Christ. He soon received an exhorter's license from Brother Aibara, pastor of the Joso Circuit. In the spring of 1881 he married Miss Suzuki Bun, a native of Omori, and a member of the Union Church of Christ in Japan. In September of the same year he entered the theological school, then in Yokohama, where he studied diligently for three years. In the summer vacation of 1884 he went to Shinshu and laid the foundations of the work at Sakashita and Takato. In the fall of the same year he entered the Japan Conference on probation and was appointed to Fukuyama, Hakodate District, where he labored two years. In 1886 he was removed to the Hakodate Circuit, but, at the request of the little church in Fujisaki, the presiding elder transferred him to the latter place in January, 1887. After his arrival the church was increased in numbers and a neat building, for church and parsonage, was erected. Had brother Iwai's strength been continued he would doubtless have built up, under God's providence, a strong and self-supporting church. He gradually failed in health until he was called from labor to reward on the 10th of September, 1887.

Erie Conference.

John Eckels was born in Somerset Township, Pa., September 4, 1821, and died at Reno, Pa., October 25, 1888. His evident call and qualifications for the work of the ministry were early recognized, and in the year 1860 he received license as a local preacher. In the village of Greenville and in the surrounding country his services were in almost constant demand. Most cheerfully did he respond to these demands, though his daily toil at his forge was severe, often taxing his energies to their utmost. Especially at home were his services eagerly sought and greatly blessed. In any emergency at a moment's notice he would enter the pulpit and, to the delight and edification of the people, preach the Gospel from a warm and loving heart. He served the Church as local preacher six years. He was received on trial in the Erie Conference in 1866. In the year 1868, at the session of Conference in Jamestown, N. Y., he was ordained local deacon by Bishop Baker. At the Conference in Cleveland, O., in 1870, he was ordained elder by Bishop Clark. As a minister of the Lord Jesus Brother Eckels was entirely consecrated. All his power, all his time—all was laid upon the altar. He was a man of one work. The people among whom he labored marked his devotion and heartily co-operated with him. It could not be otherwise than that his labors should be crowned with success. Great numbers were won to Christ through his instrumentality. Though not having enjoyed the advantages of a scholastic training, he possessed a well-disciplined mind. He was thoroughly qualified to expound the doctrines of the cross and to defend them against all opposers. While possessing the logical faculty in a superior degree he was an evangelist in an eminent sense, an exhorter, illustrating this gift of great importance in the work of the ministry, this gift of exhortation worthy of cultivation by all embassadors of the Lord Jesus. He served the following charges: Waterloo, New Lebanon, Evansburg, Townville, Mill Village, Espyville, Edinborough, Clarksville, Mount Jackson, Volant, and Stoneborough. At the last session of Conference he was appointed to the Reno Charge. He at once entered upon his work with courage and high hope of his accustomed success in winning sinners to Christ and building up the Church in the faith of the Gospel. He had been twice round his circuit, preaching with great acceptability to his people, and receiving assurances of the hearty sympathy and support of those whom he expected to serve. On Thursday, the day of his departure, at about fifteen minutes before three o'clock in the afternoon, apparently in a profound reverie, while crossing the railroad track near the station at Reno, he was struck by the engine of a swiftly passing train, and instantly hurried to his unchanging home and to his sure reward. Instant death to one in instant readiness is instant glory! This fact sheds a halo of light around and over the sad scenes of his death. Brother Eckels was twice married. His first wife's name was Walker, who, with their two infant children, had departed this life before the year 1846. He was married to Miss Esther Caroline Leech, November 23, 1848. The union was a happy one, now broken after nearly forty years of domestic bliss.

Platt Wheeler Scofield was born in Tompkins County, N. Y., December 29, 1830. December 29, 1853, he was married to Miss Jane Walradt of Harmony, N. Y. In 1864 he was admitted to the Erie Conference, since which time he was in the active work of the ministry, serving the following charges in the order given: Corsica, Brockwayville, Rimersburg, Petroleum Center, Ellington, Pleasantville, Petrolia, Saint Petersburg, Brookville, and Forestville. He died at Forestville, Chautauqua County, N. Y. He was stricken with apoplexy on Wednesday night, June 19, 1889, and died the following Friday morning. In outward physical appearance he was in his prime, and gave promise for years of work to come. On the Sabbath morning before his death he preached with his usual vigor and ability. Brother Scofield was a true friend in the fullest meaning of the term. He never flattered, and words of commendation falling from his lips were like diamonds. When he criticised it was always with the acuteness of a master's insight, but given as a father's counsel with a brother's love. As a preacher he was in many respects an ideal man. He was a close, hard student. He courted knowledge that he might be wise and helpful to others. As a pulpit man he was always fresh, and you heard him to your profit. He was an easy and ready speaker. He was a loyal preacher. In all the years of his ministry I never knew him to be self-seeking. He never complained about his appointments. He ever went where he was sent cheerfully, like a man of God laboring, not for self, but for souls. He was a Christian gentleman, a modest man. He was a good man, a brother beloved by all who knew him. He has gone from us, not as the sun sinks at dusk of day, but in the full noon—amid the meridian splendor of a well-spent and useful life.

J. O. Osborne, a superannuated member of the Erie Conference, died suddenly of paralysis of the heart, at his pleasant home in McKean, Pa., November 6, 1888. He was born October 17, 1823, at Candor, Tioga County, N. Y. After joining the Conference on trial Brother Osborne's first charge was Wattsburg, where he remained three years. He then served the McKean Charge three years, where he abounded in labors, was very popular, and saw sinners converted and churches strengthened. He was next sent to Asbury, on the lake shore, where he united the church, winning the hearts of all by his judicious and Christ-like spirit. After serving the Springfield, Phillipsville, and Greene Charges each three years he was returned to the McKean Charge, where, laboring one year, he took a superannuated relation in 1885, preaching occasionally at quarterly meetings and funerals, helping the pastors as his health permitted. He was a good friend to the preachers on the charge where he resided. The last year he supplied the Sterretania appointment, where he was much loved by the congregation. He enjoyed preaching once in two weeks. His last sermon was preached November 4. It was a sermon of remarkable power and spirit. At its close the preacher, overcome, fell fainting in his pulpit. His work was done, and well done. Early Tuesday morning the spirit of this holy man departed to test the joys of the saints in heaven. Brother Osborne was a sweet-spirited man. The Church has lost an efficient worker, the community a good citizen, his widow a faithful, affectionate husband. Our brother's home-life was very pleasant, his wife sharing his joys and sorrows as a true helpmeet to him. His Christian experience was deep and joyous. While humble he was firm for the right.

Joseph Allen was born in Harpersfield, Delaware County, N. Y., April 5, 1813, was converted in 1832, was married to Miss Esther L. Butler, March 12, 1834. He was licensed to exhort August 1, 1838, licensed to preach in 1845, and was received into the Erie Conference at its session in Westfield, N. Y., July, 1856. For fourteen years he stood in his lot among us accepting the various charges assigned him under the burning conviction that God had called him to preach the Gospel; hence he always went to his new fields cheerfully, and worked faithfully till, in 1870, feeling that his work as an itinerant minister was done, he asked his Conference to give him a superannuated relation. His request was granted, and in this relation he continued, with slowly but constantly failing health, till March 15, 1889, at four o'clock in the morning, the Master said, "It is enough; come up higher," and amid friends who had done what they could for his temporal comfort "he closed his eyes to all on earth, to open them in heaven." In his active ministry he was very successful in winning souls for Christ, frequently having extensive revivals. This fact gave him great comfort in his last days, when, from the nature of his disease (softening of the brain), he alternated between hope and fear. He was often heard to say: "God knows that I have tried to do my work well, and have had some success in leading souls to Jesus." In his retired relation he circulated freely among the people, especially where the sick reclined, speaking words of comfort to the sorrowing, encouraging the despondent—indeed, helping all within his reach to the extent of his ability. He was a favorite with the people when death visited their homes, and on funeral occasions. Rev. B. S. Hill said to the writer, a few days ago, that he believed Brother Allen had preached more funeral sermons in the last fifteen years than any other country preacher in Erie County. The last sermon he undertook to preach was at the funeral of an old friend, but was unable to finish it. His widow, with an only surviving daughter (Mrs. James Dearin), one sister (Mrs. Mary Mercer), and a number of more distant relatives, remain among us, to think of and mourn for him, not as lost, but gone before, while the three daughters who preceded him to the heavenly home rejoice with him over his final victory. His funeral, which occurred on the 19th day of March in the Methodist Episcopal church at Wattsburg, Erie County, Pa., was largely attended by his old friends and parishioners. Rev. J. W. Willson of Corry, Pa., by previous arrangement, preached on the occasion a very tender and appropriate sermon; the ministers of all the churches of the place and a few from adjoining charges assisting. God buries his workman, but his work goes on. "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his."

Richard M. Bear was born August 18, 1818, at Moorhead's Ferry, Pa. The following were his fields of labor under appointment by the bishops: Braceville, Ellsworth, Cambridge, Conneautville, Red Bank, Shippenville, Clarion, supernumerary, Hartford, Williamsfield, Girard, Pa.; Springfield, Conneautville again, Sinclairville, Villanova, Sharon, New Wilmington, Niles and Liberty, Shenango and East Brook, Chaplain in United States Army, Waterloo, Clarksville, Cuyahoga Falls, Agent Lake Shore Seminary, Parker's Landing, South Oil City, Sheridan; State Street, Meadville; Mount Jackson, Jamestown, Pa.; West Middlesex, Fredonia, Pa.; Volant, supernumerary again. He was a man of decision of character, of deep convictions. He "had the courage of his convictions." He faltered not in the face of obstacles. His faith and strength rose with the appearance of trial. He knew what trials were, but through grace he was enabled to endure some, and to triumph over others. Especially during his early ministry was he subject to the severest trials of his faith, faith in God, faith in revealed religion, faith in his own experience. These assaults of the adversary would often continue for days together. Finally, after repeated trials and repeated triumphs, he gained a signal victory, raised his Ebenezer then and there, and from that time Satan left him. Brother Bear died at New Castle, Pa., Sabbath evening, December 9, 1888. He left no dying testimony, and he needed none. His life was a living testimony.

Minnesota Conference.

Emory S. Gardenier was born in Humble Center, N. Y., November 3, 1853, and died at the same place, November 19, 1888, at the age of thirty-five years. He was converted at about fourteen years of age, and was very early impressed with the conviction that he ought to preach the Gospel. When but a boy he was very helpful in revival services near his own home. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Peck in 1880, and traveled as a supply on Russell and Parishville Circuit, Northern New York Conference. On the 25th day of October, 1882, he was married and immediately after removed to Minnesota. In 1883 he supplied Glenville Circuit in Minnesota Conference. In 1884 he was admitted on trial and returned to Glenville. The next two years he served the Morristown Charge. In 1886 he was appointed to Clearwater Circuit, and again in 1887. He served the charge until August, 1888, when failing health led him to return to his native place, in the hope that a year of rest might enable him to so recruit his wasted energies that he could return to the work to which he had consecrated his energies and life. On Sunday, November 11, 1888, he was stricken down with typhoid fever, and in one short week and one day he passed to his rest. He was a gentle, genial, quiet, loving, Christian man, and a useful minister of Jesus Christ. His death was triumphant. A few minutes before breathing his last, in answer to the inquiry of his loving wife if all was right with him, he replied, "O yes! all right, all right."

Frank I. Fisher was born at Gardiner, Mass., November 21, 1857. Early in life he removed with his parents to Wisconsin. After two years' active work in the ministry he entered the theological department of Boston University, continuing his studies there for two years. Leaving Boston he came to Minnesota, and was appointed successively to Herman, Taylor Street, Minneapolis; First Church, Saint Paul; and Bates Avenue, Saint Paul. While at Bates Avenue the lung trouble which had long been a source of anxiety to his friends assumed such proportions that he was obliged to abandon his work and seek a change of climate. But neither the mountains of California nor the hills of Tennessee could stay the inroads of disease. After a brave struggle for life Brother Fisher betook himself to the home of his parents in Woonsocket, Dak., and there laid him down to die. He passed into his rest December 7, 1888. Brother Fisher was a young man of much promise. Endowed with a naturally vigorous intellect, its powers were developed and disciplined by a thorough university training. The temper of his mind was analytical, and he was an independent and vigorous thinker, keenly alive to the great theologic and philosophic problems of his time. He was a bold and fearless preacher, his sermons exhibiting both clear thought and vigorous and graceful diction.

John Milton Akers was born in Fulton County, Pa., February 12, 1836, and died February 3, 1889. He was converted in 1851 and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. He entered the East Baltimore Conference in 1861, was ordained deacon in 1863, and elder in 1865. In 1867 he married Miss Millie E. Ellis, and in 1868 was transferred to the Central Pennsylvania Conference. In 1869 he moved with his wife to Minnesota for his health, and in 1870 was transferred to the Minnesota Conference, and faithfully served the following charges: Sauk Center and Osakis, Princeton, Berlin, Byron, Faribault Circuit, Reeds and Wabasha, Pine Island and Saint Charles. He was taken ill at the close of a powerful revival in which many were saved. The nervous strain connected with this work doubtless had something to do with the sudden termination of his life. The day after the close of the meetings his whole physical structure seemed to give way. His illness lasted but a few days. His pain was intense, but his soul-life triumphed over all. In the midst of severest pains he said to his wife, "What a vast desolate waste this world would be without Christ!" February 2 he was heard to utter this request: "O, that I might be clothed and in my right mind by Sunday!" Before the Sabbath "he was not, for God took him." He was a man of deep intellectuality, specially gifted along poetic lines, a careful reader of Methodist theology, and a close thinker. As a writer he was easy, graceful, and poetic. His thought was always clear and forceful, and his language chaste and finished. As a preacher he was clear, logical, and deeply spiritual. As a friend he was affectionate.

Rock River Conference.

Jonathan Manley Clendenning was born in Henry County, Ill., April 27, 1840. In October, 1860, he was admitted on trial in Rock River Conference, and appointed as "junior" preacher to Forreston and Brookville. At the latter place he had over one hundred conversions. His next appointment was Apple River. Toward the close of this year he was commissioned by Governor Yates as chaplain of the Ninety-sixth Illinois Infantry. Not being in orders, he was transferred to Wisconsin Conference, where he was ordained deacon by Bishop Baker, who immediately transferred him to Rock River Conference. He served as chaplain eight months, when ill-health necessitated his resignation. Recovering his health, he was appointed, in 1863, to the Hanover Charge. At the Conference of 1864 he was located at his own request. A vacancy occurring at Forreston, he was appointed by his presiding elder to serve that charge. While here a new company was recruited to fill the depleted ranks of the Fifteenth Illinois Volunteers; he was chosen second lieutenant, and was afterward promoted to the captaincy of Company F, which rank he held until the war closed, and his regiment was mustered out. Returning home, he took a course in law at Ann Arbor, and was graduated with high honors. He practiced law in Chicago until 1875, when he yielded to his convictions and again entered the ministry. He was, at the Conference of 1875, re-admitted on his certificate of location, and filled the following appointments: Big Foot, Roscoe, Marengo, and Winnebago Street, Rockford. At each of these churches he remained three years, and had gracious revivals. In 1887 he was stationed at First Church, Elgin, where he finished his work, February 7, 1889. He married, in 1861, Miss Olive A. Wells, who survives him. Brother Clendenning was an earnest and fearless preacher. His aim was to reach men, and he succeeded. His sickness was long and painful, but God's grace was remarkably manifest. It was a complete triumph over death and the grave.

Samuel Pillsbury was born in Johnsbury, N. Y., July 12, 1802, and died in Milford, Ia., October 29, 1888. He was married in 1829 in Monroe County, N. Y., to Miss Eliza Ann Latta, who to the time of his death was a loving and efficient helper. He was converted at the age of eighteen years, and immediately united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1835 he came West, and the following year joined the old Illinois Conference. He was duly admitted into full connection, and ordained deacon by Bishop Soule, and at the organization of the Rock River Conference, in 1840, was ordained elder by Bishop Waugh. At the time he united with the Illinois Conference it included in its territory Wisconsin and all the North-west. He was by nature and grace fitted to be the companion of such men as Cartwright, Brunson, and the Mitchels for heroic work on the frontier. In that then new North-west he served as pastor on twelve different circuits. On all these he did grand work, and hundreds were converted. He organized the first class in Kenosha, Troy, Hart Prairie, Delevan, Elkhorn, Janesville, and was one of the first regular pastors in Madison, Wis. The disease against which he struggled for years, and which finally triumphed over his magnificent physical manhood, was contracted on his first circuit. In attempting to cross a river in early spring he became thoroughly wet, and was compelled to travel twelve or fifteen miles across a bleak prairie with his clothes frozen stiff before he found a friendly home. After Brother Pillsbury was superannuated, he lived in Winnebago County, Ill., until 1863, when he moved with his family to Iowa and made his home on Pillsbury Point. Here he lived in quiet retirement, a genial, kindly, Christian man, firm in his faith, and deeply interested in all the work of the Church. At the time of his death he was the guest of his son, W. F. Pillsbury. He appeared in usual health during the day. Before retiring to his room he sang the favorite hymn, "Sweet hour of prayer." A few minutes later he called his wife, who found him suffering much, and in a short time he entered into rest.

Lewis Anderson was born in Eaton, Madison County, N. Y., July 3, 1809, and died at his home in Rockford, Ill., January 11, 1889. He married Susannah Pratt, May 20, 1830, who survives and mourns his loss. He was converted in September, 1828, and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1837 he was recommended by Madison Circuit to the Oneida Conference, which admitted him on trial, and he was appointed to Cherry Valley, Otsego County. His next appointment was Vernon Center, where he had a gracious revival. He was admitted into full membership and ordained deacon August 25, 1839. His next appointment was West Winfield. He was ordained elder in 1841. He subsequently filled the following appointments in order: Litchfield, Stockbridge, East Hamilton, Gilbertsville, and Canastota. In July, 1852, at the Conference in Utica, he asked for and received a location in order to remove to Illinois. He arrived with his family at Coral, McHenry County, Ill., early in September. In 1853 he was admitted on his certificate of location, and became a member of the Rock River Conference, retaining that relation up to the day of his death. In this Conference he received the following appointments: Marengo, Belvidere, Roscoe, Rockford, Mount Morris, Winnebago, Roscoe again, New Milford, and South Belvidere. In 1867, at his own request, he was granted a superannuate relation. The following Conference he was made effective and stationed at Harvard. In 1869 he was again superannuated. He settled in Rockford, where he greatly endeared himself to all the churches by his useful and godly life. For fifty-six years he was a Methodist preacher. He was emphatically a gospel preacher, logical, biblical, and practical. He was a genuine specimen of a Christian gentleman whose experience was always bright, for "he lived in the house of peace, with his windows open toward the sunrise." As a Methodist, he loved our economy and was loyal to our institutions.

North-west Indiana Conference.

Lucas Nebeker was born in Pickaway County, O., February 25, 1819, and died at his home in Battle Ground, Ind., November 22, 1888. When but a child his father emigrated to what is now Fountain County, Ind., in 1824, and settled on the Wabash River. The settlement was on the frontier, and still inhabited by Indians, and his father built the first hewed log-cabin in the settlement. The Nebeker family had become Methodists in Ohio, and were not long in being found by the itinerating Methodist preachers, and the somewhat pretentious log-cabin of the family became the neighborhood church. The subject of this sketch was converted August 20, 1838. Before that important event, like many other young men, he tried to be skeptical concerning religion, but after his conversion he had strong convictions of his duty to preach the Gospel, which, however, he resisted and concealed for a time. He was received into the North Indiana Conference, at South Bend, in the fall of 1851. The following is his Conference record: Alamo, Monticello, Plymouth, Rossville, Newport, Shawnee Prairie, Newtown, Covington and Eugene, Rockville and Montezuma, Terre Haute, Crawfordsville, Thorntown, Stockwell, La Porte, La Porte District, Thorntown again. In the fall of 1874, on account of feeble health, his name was placed on the supernumerary list. In 1875 he was granted a superannuated relation. In 1880 he was again made effective, and appointed to Battle Ground. This was his last appointment, except a number given him by the presiding elder, as a supply. In 1881 his name was placed on the superannuated list, where it remained at the time of his decease. Brother Nebeker was married three times: first, August 15, 1841, to Abigail H. Gilbert; after her death, August 31, 1851, to Margaret Leach, and after her decease, December 22, 1852, to Marian E. Insley, who survives him. When he retired from the effective work of the ministry his usefulness in the Church did not cease. Besides supplying several vacancies in the pastorate, he continued an efficient worker in his home church to the last, always sustaining the pastor of his family. He was a loyal Methodist, with strong faith in God and in the Church, highly conscientious, quiet and unostentatious in his movements, sweet in spirit, and pure in life. He was a preacher of considerable ability—clear, logical, practical, and scriptural—not sensational, but always interesting and convincing. He was intelligent, an extensive reader on all subjects, kept well abreast with the literature of the times, and wrote some for the press. His decline was gradual and peaceful. He talked of his coming change with the calmness of the affairs of every-day life, and his last testimony to God's saving grace was clear and triumphant.

E. B. Woodson was born in Michigan City, Ind., March 30, 1850. His first appointment was Argos, where he served the Church efficiently. Morocco was his next charge, where he successfully carried forward the many interests of that large circuit. The fall of 1881 he was stationed at Battle Ground, where he organized a young people's meeting, which is yet a tower of strength to this growing church. From 1882 to 1885 he was pastor of the Oxford Charge, during which time a most gracious revival was witnessed throughout the work. Here Brother Woodson enjoyed the largest ingathering of his ministry. Brookston was faithfully served one year, when he was appointed to Remington, his last charge, where he was most devotedly attached to a loving people. For more than a week previous to his sickness he was engaged in special meetings which were daily growing in interest and in power. He preached his last sermon Thursday evening, February 14, though feeling quite ill, with unusual pathos. His text was: "To-day if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts." The congregation will never forget the sermon or the preacher. During the night he was suddenly seized with pneumonia, from which, with typhoid and heart complications, he grew rapidly worse, and died Friday evening, February 22, 1889.

North Ohio Conference.

C. E. Reddick was born in New York, November 15, 1837; he was married to Miss Kate Read, February 18, 1860; he was converted in Philadelphia at eighteen years of age; commenced his work as teacher in the House of Refuge, and taught successfully for five years; was licensed as an exhorter in 1860, at Philadelphia, preaching almost every Sabbath in the prisons and almshouses, and being a good singer, kind and loving, he always won the hearts of the people wherever he went. He entered the army in 1861, and after serving thirteen months was discharged, his health failing; he moved to Pittsburg in 1862, and was licensed as a local preacher in 1867, filling vacancies on every Sabbath, and working at his business. He moved to Cleveland in 1868; joined the Erie Conference, and was ordained deacon in 1870, working in the prisons, infirmary, work-house, and by-ways; joined the North Ohio Conference in 1871, and built what is now the Jennings Avenue Church, Cleveland; moved to the East Side, preached six years for the Congregational Church; by them ordained elder. He was sent to Sand Ridge Circuit, Republic Circuit, New Portage Circuit, Mount Hope, Delaware, and West Bedford, where, in four short months, he repaired the parsonage, and finished and dedicated Smith's Church. He commenced meeting at West Carlisle, Sunday night, holding until Wednesday, preached as usual, only with more power, was brought home with heart trouble—an old army trouble. Thus peacefully he fell asleep January 28, 1889.

Joseph Matlock was born at Leesville, O., May 22, 1823. Feeling the need of a more thorough education, he became a student of Baldwin University, Berea, O., where he spent some years of faithful study. He was admitted on trial into the North Ohio Conference in 1851, and ordained deacon in 1854, and elder in 1856. He supplied the following charges: Wellington, Richfield, Millersburg, Shanesville, Westfield, Dalton, Millersburg again, where he did efficient work for the Master. In 1862 he became chaplain of the Sixteenth Regiment, Ohio Volunteers. Failing health compelled him to relinquish this work, in which he had endeared himself to the whole regiment, and in 1863 was pastor at Canal Dover. The next year his health failed, and he was superannuated at his own request, and in 1865 was transferred to the Missouri Conference and stationed at Louisiana, Mo. In 1867 he returned to this Conference and was stationed at Wooster. From 1868 to 1871 he was presiding elder of the Wooster District. From 1872 to 1874 he was stationed at Shelby, and the next year at Brooklyn. He was then supernumerary for two years, and in 1879 transferred to the Louisiana Conference. Returning again to the North Ohio Conference, he filled the following stations: Melmore, Bloomville, West Salem, Galena and Cardington. Early in 1888 the disease which he contracted in the army rendered him unable to preach, and he was made a superannuate at the last session of this Conference, held at Ashland, September, 1888. All that love and skill could do was done, but he continued to fail until three o'clock, September 28, when this faithful servant heard the voice saying, "Come up higher." He died gloriously. His bedside for many weeks had been a hallowed place. Often he shouted, in the midst of terrible suffering, "It is perfect triumph, complete victory." This was his dying testimony. The people of Cardington loved him, and his last hours were spent in prayer for the dear ones to whom he had ministered. Brother Matlock was thrice married. His last marriage was to Mrs. Ella Harding, of Detroit, about nine years ago, who, after being a faithful helper in the work of the ministry and his comforter in the hours of sickness, lives to mourn his absence.

Philip R. Roseberry was a native of Pennsylvania, born in 1821, and was converted when twelve years old. He was received on trial in the North Ohio Conference in 1845, and his first appointment was Newcomerstown, as junior preacher. He afterward served Greenville, Fort Recovery, Port Jefferson, in succession, but his health failing he retired a few years. Upon his recovery he resumed work, and was sent to serve, successively, Congress, Troy, Bridgeport, Goodwill, Plymouth, Hayesville, and Bellville Circuits. For several years preceding his death he was superannuated, residing for a while on a farm near Ashland, and later moved into the village, where he spent his last years in comparative rest, after a life of more than usual activity. But one week previous to his death, which occurred September 10, he walked down the street with the writer, talked of the coming session of his Conference, and expressed a wish to attend, if circumstances would permit; but, alas! he was stricken down with paralysis on Thursday, and died the following Tuesday night. His suffering was continued but a short time. He was able to converse with friends until a few hours before his departure. When no longer able to speak he lifted his finger and pointed toward heaven to signal his sorrowing wife and daughter that his faith was still triumphant, and that he feared no evil while passing through the valley and shadow of death. We cannot say that Brother Roseberry was a gifted preacher; but, what is perhaps more, that he was sympathetic in his feelings, doctrinal in his preaching, and eminently loyal to the economy of the Church he served so faithfully. His voice at once commanded attention; his sermons were practical utterances of Methodistic theology, thoughtful, and delivered in demonstration of the Spirit.

Southern Illinois Conference.

John Hamilton Hill laid down the burdens and afflictions of this life in Lebanon, Ill., August 16, 1889. Brother Hill was born in Ross County, O., December 28, 1816. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1835. He was licensed to preach August 5, 1842, and until ten years ago, when his health failed, he was a faithful herald of the Gospel. Not once, after joining Conference, did he fail to answer to his name at Conference roll-call until five years ago, when increasing infirmities prevented. He never once failed to go to his appointment, or left before his time expired. In his best days he was considered a preacher of more than ordinary ability. He was a successful revivalist, and hundreds are the souls whom he led to Christ. Many years ago he professed the blessing of Christian purity, and wherever he served as pastor he kindled flames of holy fire. During his long and successful ministry he filled the following appointments: Palestine Circuit, McLeansborough Mission, Lawrenceville, Palestine, Carmi, Mount Vernon, Mount Vernon District, agent for McKendree College two years, Carbondale, Equality District, Mount Vernon again, Mound City, Pinckneyville, DuQuoin, Collinsville, Highland, Mason, Fairfield, Bridgeport, Nashville, New Douglass. In 1836 he married Miss Eleanor Williams, who for thirty-one years shared with him an itinerant life. Twenty-two years ago, while living in DuQuoin, she laid down the cross and was crowned. Brother Hill moved with his family to Illinois in 1839, and settled in Clay County, near Maysville. On March 25, 1869, he married Mrs. Mary E. Huggins, who for ten years traveled with him, nobly performing the arduous duties of a Methodist preacher's wife. His active years were full of zealous labors for the Master. His superannuated years have been a grand illustration of power of the Christian religion to cheer and sustain under deprivation and affliction. No impatient word or murmur of complaint was at any time heard to escape his lips.

Chicago German Conference.

Fr. Kluckholm was born the 4th of February, 1820, in Bavenhausen, Ormt Varenhalz, Fuerstenthum, Lippe-Detmold. In the spring of 1848 he came to this country, and the 30th of December of the same year he joined the Methodist Episcopal church on Indiana Street, Chicago, Ill. March 17, 1849, he married Christine Charlotte Freitag. The 1st of November of the same year he was happily converted. From this time on regular services were held in this neighborhood, and he often led them. This caused him to pray much and search the Scriptures. In the spring of 1853 he moved to Cedar Lake, Ind. In the fall of 1854 he determined to enter the itinerancy, and was recommended to the Rock River Conference. His first appointment was Manitowoc, Wis. This mission was very small in membership. During the two years he served this mission sixty-seven were converted and joined the Church. Fond du Lac, Wis., was his second appointment, but as this field of labor was very large he had two assistants. Wheeling was his third appointment, where he served from 1858 to 1860. From here he was sent to Claybourne Avenue, Chicago, Ill. In the fall of 1862 he was sent to La Porte, Ind., and labored here for two years. In the year 1864 he was appointed to New Bremen, Ill., and served on this charge till 1867, when he was appointed to Peru, Ill. In the fall of 1868 he was appointed presiding elder of the Galena District. Under his supervision the district was very much enlarged. In the fall of 1873 he was transferred to the Chicago German Conference, and served for the second time in New Bremen until 1875, when he was appointed to Columbus, Wis., and on this field he labored till the fall of 1878. At this time he was attacked with typhoid fever, and was thereby so weakened that he had to take a superannuated relation. In the year 1880 he moved to Crandon, Dak., and remained in the work of the Lord as much as he was able. Last

New-year he preached his last sermon. He died happy in the Lord, 15th of February, 1889, at the age of sixty-nine years.

Central Ohio Conference.

Lee L. Warner was born at Middletown, Holmes County, O., July 22, 1863. He entered the itinerant ministry in the Kansas Conference, in May, 1884, and was stationed at Greenleaf, Kan. August 17 of the same year he was united in marriage, at Lakeside, to Miss Laura M. Case, of Bowling Green. His father's health failing, Brother Warner returned to Ohio in the summer of 1885, and was appointed to Shiloh the ensuing Conference. He served the following year at Huntington. In the fall of 1887 he was transferred to the Central Ohio Conference, and stationed at Genoa and Millbury. During his second year on this charge he was attacked with a malignant form of typhoid fever. His young life and earthly ministry were closed December 19, 1888. We buried him at Bowling Green, O., where his stricken widow and two infant children reside. Brother Warner was a most excellent preacher, a devoted son, an exemplary husband and father, and was greatly beloved by his people. He will be long and lovingly remembered by all who through intimate relation became endeared to him.

William Scott Paul, M.D., was born in Jefferson County, O., August 18, 1819. At the age of twenty he was very graciously converted to God, joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for years carried in his heart the great secret—which he then supposed no one else even thought of—that he ought to preach the Gospel. He was licensed to preach in 1849; went to Ohio Wesleyan University, at Delaware, took a scientific course, was graduated in 1852, and the same year was admitted into the North Ohio Conference. Among his appointments were Cherokee, Fredricktown, Galion, Toledo, West Liberty, Cardington, and Clyde. He was three years financial agent of the Ohio Wesleyan University; one term presiding elder on Kenton District, and three years at Carey, O. In 1843 he was married to Miss Hannah Norton, of Steubenville, O., who still survives. Brother Paul was of Scotch-Irish descent. He was a Christian gentleman, quickly sensitive, rich in his sympathies, catholic in his opinions, evangelical in his religious teachings, faithful in all his house—he loved God supremely and his neighbor as himself. He died in great peace at his home in Forest, May 14.

Oliver Kennedy was born at Milford Center, O., on the 16th day of October, 1825, and died in Bellefontaine, O., March 23, 1889, aged sixty-three years, three months, and seven days. At the age of eighteen he was converted, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. He married Miss Elizabeth Cherry, March 2, 1847, and for forty-two years they lived happily together. Brother Kennedy was licensed to preach in 1852, and a year after was employed by the presiding elder to travel the Quincy Circuit. In 1853 he entered what was then the North Ohio Conference, but in the division his membership fell within the bounds of the Central Ohio Conference, in which he made his home. His charges were Arcanum, Greenville, Bellefontaine, Ames Chapel, Toledo; Bucyrus, Van Wert, Lima, Findlay, Marysville, Van Wert the second time, Sidney, Bellefontaine the second time, Kenton, and from Kenton to the Bellefontaine District, where he closed his labors in the fifth year of his presiding eldership. Between his pastorates at Bucyrus and Van Wert he served three years in the army for the preservation of the Union, as chaplain of the One Hundred and First Ohio Volunteers. He seemed to be peculiarly adapted to the work of the ministry. He had a large heart, a tender, sympathetic, generous, confiding, and noble nature, and naturally drew men to him. He was blessed in his ministry; the charges he served were built up, and in many there were great revivals of religion. Of Brother Kennedy it may be said, more truly, I think, than of any man I ever knew: He was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost and of faith, and therefore "much people was added unto the Lord." It was during his pastoral term at Bellefontaine that the two charges were united. For such a work as this he was peculiarly adapted. He was powerful in prayer. Some two years ago his health failed, and he thought that his end was near. He felt that his heart was diseased, and that he would die suddenly. He often conversed with the writer about it, and expressed perfect satisfaction if it should be so. He lived ready for the change whenever it should come; but he rallied from this, and for six or eight months before his death his health appeared much better, and he had strong hopes of completing his term of six years on the district. Twelve days before his death he had what appeared to be a bilious attack, and suffered very much, being completely prostrated; but four days later, on Friday, he was able to go to the church and conduct the funeral services of the daughter of our brother, Rev. J. M. Longfellow. On Saturday morning, against the wishes and advice of his family and friends, he went to his quarterly meeting at Lockington, where he preached once on Saturday and twice on the Sabbath. On Sunday night he was attacked with erysipelas, and on Monday the doctor told him it would be taking his life in his hands to attempt to go home; but he said if he was to be sick he wanted to be at home, and if he was to die he wanted to die at home. So he would risk it. He arrived at Bellefontaine at five o'clock Monday evening, was driven to the polls, and there performed his last public act, namely, to vote for the saloon to be banished from Bellefontaine. On Tuesday he suffered greatly. He said: "No one knows how much I have suffered since last Tuesday, but I have never been happier in my life." "I don't think I ever preached," said he, "as I did last Sunday. The Lord was with me in power." Thursday night he suffered intensely all night; and Friday morning, in an agony, he would cry out: "O, I want rest! I want rest!" Saturday morning he appeared better, and was more hopeful than at any time before; but at nine o'clock a change came over him, and it was apparent that his end was near. At twelve o'clock he was asked, "Brother Kennedy, how are you now?" He replied, "All right;" and all right he was, for at 12.30, without a struggle, the spirit departed.

Oregon Conference.

Linus M. Nickerson was born in Dayton, N. Y., June 22, 1823, and died at Crafton, Cal., September 12, 1888. He attended Cazenovia Seminary four years and a half, being a classmate of General Hawley, Bishop Andrews, and Bishop Newman. He was converted at twenty, and so clearly that he and all who knew him gloried in the power of God to save. He was licensed to preach in 1851, and soon joined the Oneida Conference, for seven years doing good service as pastor; then devoted two years to teaching, and two years was school commissioner of his native county. In 1862 he was appointed chaplain of the One Hundred and Twenty-second New York Volunteers, and served bravely and faithfully until the close of the war. After the war he was a member of the constitutional convention that reorganized the State, himself framing its present school laws. From 1867 to 1871 he was again in the regular work of the ministry, being pastor in Georgetown and presiding elder of Richmond District, Virginia Conference. He was then transferred by Bishop Simpson to the Oregon Conference, and stationed at Salem two years. He was two years presiding elder of Eugene City District, and was trustee of the Willamette University. Brother Nickerson was three years principal of Santiam Academy. He went to the Klamath Indian Agency as industrial teacher and farmer. Two years later he was appointed agent of the reservation, in which position he served more than six years, thus making in all at the Klamath Agency more than eight years. In all these posts of responsibility, trust, and honor, this brother was faithful, energetic, and wise. In 1885 he went to Crafton, Cal., broken down in health. Here he lingered and suffered until his death.

North Nebraska Conference.

Josiah Fowler was born in Ontario County, N. Y., March 12, 1832. When thirteen years of age he removed with his parents to the State of Michigan, and there, when but sixteen years old was happily converted to God, and soon after united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Two years later he was licensed to exhort. In 1855 he was married to Miss Mary Barnes, of Aurelius, Mich. In 1857 he united with the Michigan Conference. In 1862 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Webb, of Olive, Clinton County, Mich., who now mourns the loss of an affectionate husband. In 1872 Brother Fowler and family came to this State, and two years later he united with the Nebraska Conference. When that Conference was divided, and the North Nebraska was organized, his lot fell among the few that then composed this Conference, but with kindred spirits he labored with a zeal born of love to rescue the fallen, and build up the Church of his choice. He filled the pulpits of important churches with success, until failing health began to admonish him that he must have rest. One year ago he asked for a much needed relief from active work in the Conference, and retired from public life. He soon after removed to his farm near Springbank, Neb., where on the 20th of August, 1889, he passed to his reward. Brother Fowler was a loving husband, a consistent father, a good preacher, and a true man.

South-east Indiana Conference.

Adam Scott was born in Belmont County, O., November 8, 1835. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church and was converted in December, 1853. He was licensed to preach 1869, ordained local deacon 1876, and elder in 1880. He was admitted to the South-east Indiana Conference in 1878, and appointed to Hardenburg, Canaan, Paris, Crothersville, Jonesville, Paris again, and Freetown. On the 29th day of April, 1889, after a long and painful illness, he passed from this world. He was possessed of more than ordinary ability, and by constant study and labor he became a clear expounder of the divine word and an earnest, sympathizing, encouraging pastor. To his family he ever evinced an exemplary spirit and deportment, and was every thing in this regard that a wife and children could desire. His body rests in the beautiful valley cemetery among the almost mountainous hills of his last field of labor, in the western part of Jackson County.

Upper Iowa Conference.

Lyndon M. Pratt was born in Bennington, Vt., February 10, 1841. He was united in marriage to Miss Mary Neall Simpson, of Philadelphia, Pa., February 20, 1862, who survives him. He was graduated at the University in Philadelphia, in 1862, as a physician and a classical scholar. He followed the practice of medicine and the business occupation of druggist in the city of Camden, N. J., and Philadelphia for many years. Being early impressed that he was called to the work of the ministry, he accepted a license as a local preacher, in 1872, by the Quarterly Conference of the Third Street Methodist Episcopal Church of Camden, N. J. He closed his business life in 1883 and came to Iowa, and at the session of the Upper Iowa Conference at Marion, in September of that year, was admitted on trial in the traveling connection and stationed at Fairfax, on the Cedar Rapids District; at the Conference of 1884 and in 1885 he was appointed to Earlville, and served the church nobly and successfully. At the Conference of 1886 he was stationed at Sabula, on the Davenport District. After six months of marked success he was stricken with paralysis, from which he never recovered. During the remainder of the year, however, hopes were entertained of his recovery, and that he would be able to resume work again at the coming Conference. He appeared with his class, and was elected and ordained to the office of an elder in 1887. Through it all, however, his strength gave way. He asked for and was granted a superannuated relation, and continued to hold the relation until the end came. After two years and six months of patient suffering he has found the sweet rest he had so often spoken of and longed for. His was a glorious, a triumphant exit to the heaven of rest. He died October 4, 1889, at midnight.

Des Moines Conference.

William Patterson was born in Seneca County, O., November 9, 1825. He was married to Frances M. De Long, October 13, 1859. At the age of twenty-six he was converted. December 23, 1863, at the call of his country, he enlisted in the Sixty-sixth Ohio Infantry. In 1866 he moved with his family to Iowa. In 1875 he joined the Des Moines Conference. His fields of labor were the following: Walnut Circuit, Dow City, Magnolia, Griswold, Indianola Circuit, and De Soto, where he was called from labor to reward. Brother Patterson's early advantages were not the best, but his natural endowments were so rich and varied as to give him precedence over others who had been more blessed in culture. He was a true man, and liberal to a fault. He preached no emasculated theology. The incarnated Son of God as the sinner's only hope was the great theme of his preaching, and as a result his ministry was blessed with frequent revival, and the Church built up wherever he went. As a preacher his manner was earnest and often eloquent. As a pastor he was faithful and tender. His home relations were lovingly sacred and beautiful. His army life was pure and his bravery unquestioned. Thirteen years he gave to the ministry of the Methodist Church in this Conference. Through his long and painful illness he was quite tender and patient, and in death his victory was complete.

James C. Stephens was born May 21, 1844, at Lockport, Ind. He was a brave soldier during the war, serving three years as a private in the Twenty-first Indiana Infantry. He was a classical graduate of the Indiana Asbury University with the class of 1871. The following fall he entered the North-west Indiana Conference, and was appointed respectively to Waveland, Plymouth, First Church, South Bend; and Trinity Church, Lafayette. The fall of 1874 he was married to Mrs. Jennie L. Benson, who survives him. In 1881 he was transferred to Des Moines Conference, in which he served the following appointments: Shelby, Atlantic, and Red Oak. In 1887, on account of affliction in his family, he asked for and was granted a supernumerary relation, and removed with his family to Kansas City to engage temporarily in business, hoping soon to reenter his loved life-work. Here he struggled bravely with the great odds against him until released by death, December 25, 1888. He was a man of high intelligence and of indomitable courage. His fortitude and faith remained unshaken amid a multitude of trials and discouragements. As a pastor he distinguished himself by his fidelity to all the details of a preacher's work; the poor, the aged, and the sick received his special attention.

[The following obituary of E. W. Brady has just been received, a notice of whose death appeared under the usual heading in the General Minutes of 1886.]

Ebenezer Walker Brady died at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo. Ter., September 9, 1886. He was born in Union Township, Belmont County, O., July 26, 1829. Early in life, however, he became deeply impressed with the off-hand manners and earnest zeal of the Methodist itinerants, and was attracted by the power that attended them in their meetings in Ohio. It was while in attendance at one of these meetings in his early manhood that he gave his heart to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He began the work of the ministry in 1857. He joined the Pittsburg Conference in 1858. He was married to Miss Maggie E. Hatton, of Cadiz, O., April 26, 1858. He enlisted as chaplain of the One Hundred and Sixteenth Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, in 1862. He was in Colonel Washburn's command, and was taken prisoner at Winchester, Va., in May, 1863, and spent four and a half months in Libby Prison, composing one of the nine who were messmates with Chaplain C. C. McCabe, and who with him helped to make "the bright side of life in Libby Prison." After three years in the service of his country he again entered the ministry, preaching twelve years in Ohio and Iowa. In this Conference he filled the following pastoral charges: Iowa Center, Boone, Carroll, Perry, Ames, Seymour, Lineville, Garden Grove. He accepted a chaplaincy in the U. S. Army, February 19, 1884, and was stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, where he continued to meet with excellent success in the Master's work up to the time of his death. He was taken sick September 6, and passed away Friday, September 9, 1886. During most of the time of his illness he was unable to speak, but would look at his companion tenderly and point upward. In his last moments on earth he tried to tell her how he committed her to God's loving care, but he could only say, "I leave you in the hands—" and he was gone. Brother Brady was a very good man. He was a kind father and a devoted husband. In the charges that he served he had many friends among the young people, who will doubtless venerate his memory. He was never heard to complain of his lot or his work, but was patient, cheerful, trustful, ever looking upon the bright rather than the dark side of life.

West Virginia Conference.

John B. West was born in Monongalia County, Va., June 25, 1799, and died at the home of his son-in-law, Frederick Dana, in Newport, O., May 21, 1889. His conversion was so marked and powerful that he never for a moment doubted it. He was licensed to exhort in 1821. In 1822 he was licensed to preach, recommended to the traveling connection, and received on trial in the Baltimore Conference. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Enoch George in 1824, at the session of the Baltimore Conference held at Winchester, Va. Of his appointments while a member of this Conference we know nothing, except that at some time he served Lewis Circuit. He became a member of the Pittsburg Conference at its organization, and was ordained elder by Bishop Elijah Hedding, at Washington, Pa., in 1826. His ministerial record is as follows: Somerset, Randolph, Short Creek, superannuated; 1833, located; 1841, re-admitted and appointed to Brandonville, Fayette, Connellsville, Waynesburg, Grave Creek, Elizabethtown, superannuated. In 1857 he was transferred to the West Virginia Conference. He was twice married, first to Elizabeth Conley, who soon died; in 1828 he was married to Mary Alexander. Father West was an exceedingly pleasant man. His life was a model and his presence a benediction to the people of the community where he lived. As long as he was able he preached almost every Sunday. He was a great help to his pastor, always ready and willing to fill the pulpit in case of the absence of the latter. But he was affable, pleasant, and interesting to all. In his heart and thought he kept pace with the Church, and did not believe that "the former days were better than these." His heart was always in the interest of the Church. His pathway grew brighter and brighter unto the perfect day. His final illness lasted six weeks, but was borne with fortitude and resignation. His last words were, "All is right."

Pittsburg Conference.

Wesley Smith was born in County Armagh, Ireland, in May, 1805, and died in Sharpsburg, Allegheny County, Pa., October 28, 1888. In 1816 the family came to America and settled in Ohio County, Va., now West Virginia, near Wheeling, where the father engaged in teaching school. In 1823 the family removed to Jefferson County, O., where Wesley was soon appointed class-leader, and in July, 1832, was licensed to preach. The same summer he was employed as junior preacher on Greenfield Circuit, in south-western Pennsylvania; and in 1833 he was received on trial in the Pittsburg Conference and appointed to Ohio Circuit, then to Burgettstown, Blairsville, Smithfield Street, Pittsburg; Birmingham, Uniontown, Redstone, McConnellsville, Cadiz, Monongahela City, agent for Allegheny College, Pleasant Valley Mission, Clarksburg. In 1849 he was granted a location, but in 1853 he was re-admitted and appointed to Milford Circuit, Marion, Pruntytown, Parkersburg, Fourth Street, Wheeling; Liverpool, Alliance, Manchester, Pine Creek and Sharpsburg, Union Centenary, Tarentum, West Elizabeth and Pine Run, Mount Washington and Wilkinsburg. In 1874 he was placed at his own request in a superannuated relation, in which he continued until he was transferred by the Bishop of souls to the Church above. Brother Smith was twice married: he was first united in wedlock February 27, 1837, to Miss Mary E. Ford, daughter of Hugh C. Ford, of Fayette County, Pa. In May, 1854, he was married to Mrs. Elizabeth N. Varner, of Gilmer County, Va., who still survives. As a preacher of the Gospel Brother Smith had few superiors. He was favored by nature with a strong, penetrating, and yet musical voice, a ready utterance, and a perfect articulation; and he had a way of putting things which gave them peculiar force. In theology he was strictly Methodistic, and was both an able and a willing defender of the doctrines and usages of our Church. But it is not to be overlooked that while he was a power in the pulpit he also wielded an intelligent and vigorous pen, as his variant literary productions prove. His last days were full of sunshine and cheerfulness, and his end was hastened by no painful disease; when the closing hour of life came he fell peacefully asleep in Christ.

James L. Read was born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 23, 1808, and died in Pittsburg, January 9, 1889. On the 10th of November, 1831, he was married to Miss Mary H. Shannon, of Washington, Pa. In 1833 Brother Read was received on trial in the Pittsburg Conference, and appointed to Waynesburg Circuit. In 1834 he was on Monongalia Circuit and Redstone. In 1837 he was appointed agent for Allegheny College, and in 1838–39 was placed, as he desired to be, in a supernumerary relation, hoping that a season of rest would enable him to pursue the calling he loved so well. But failing health convinced him that he was physically inadequate to the labor and hardships of the itinerant life, and that he ought to retire. Accordingly, in 1840, he was superannuated at his own request. In this relation, however, he served the Church for many years as agent of the Pittsburg Book Depository; it is with pleasure we record the fact that he performed the duties of this position of honor and trust with fidelity and marked ability, and in a manner which secured the approval both of the Conference and those with whom he dealt. The tragic event of his death was unexpected and sad; the hurricane which demolished the building beneath whose ruin he perished performed its work of destruction in a single moment, and James L. Read was numbered among the dead. Dr. Read was a man of medium stature, symmetrically built, finely featured, and of fair complexion; but his physical constitution was rather slender. Intellectually, however, he was a strong man. He had a clear perception, a lively imagination, a sound judgment, a retentive memory, and a ready recollection. As a preacher of the Gospel Dr. Read enjoyed the great advantages of a soft and musical voice, a distinct enunciation, and a natural and easy delivery. His views of gospel truth were thoroughly settled, and in perfect accord with the doctrines of our Church. His statements in the pulpit were usually expressed in plain and well chosen words, and sustained by sound and convincing arguments. His sermons, therefore, were always interesting and highly instructive. But the voice which conveyed the message of mercy to sinners on earth is now attuned to the songs of the glorified in heaven.

Samuel G. Miller was born in Armstrong County, Pa., August 2, 1826, and died in Douglass County, Kan., February 12, 1889, in his sixty-fourth year. He experienced conversion and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in the winter of 1853, at the Hopewell appointment, being what was then called Blairsville Circuit. In 1855 he was united in marriage with Miss Sabina Hales. In 1862 he enlisted in the Union Army; and after serving his country three successive years he was honorably discharged July 5, 1865. Soon after his return from the army he was admitted on trial in the traveling connection by the Saint Louis Conference; in 1872 he was transferred to the Pittsburg Conference and appointed to the Sewickley Circuit, and in 1873 to Rostraver Circuit. Here his beloved companion, who had greatly endeared herself to the people, was "borne to the house appointed for all living." In 1876, at the spring session of the Conference, he was appointed to Monongahela Circuit, and at the fall session of the same year to Enon Valley, to which charge he was returned in 1877; in 1878 to Union and Emory; in 1879–80 to Emory. Brother Miller, while pastor of this station, was married to Miss Susan B. Secrist, of Darlington, Beaver County, Pa., on the 26th of February, 1879. He was then appointed to Marchand, Elderton, and became supernumerary in 1884 and superannuated in 1885. He had a clear head, a sound understanding, an honest heart, and a refined appreciation of moral distinctions. He was modest and reserved. As a Christian Brother Miller was irreproachable in his moral conduct; he entertained deep and clear views of divine truth, and had an experience in which that truth had become vividly real and abiding; he enjoyed the confidence and respect of all who knew him; and his cheerful and pleasant disposition was proof of his having "passed from death unto life." As a minister of the Gospel he was deliberate and self-possessed and natural in his manner. His sermons were usually expository, suggestive, and interesting. He studied to "show himself approved unto God, a workman that needed not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." When the close of life drew near that faith which had sustained him through years of toil enabled him to triumph over death. The last time he related his experience in public it was expressive of peace, hope, and joyous anticipations. During his last sickness he was patient and resigned.

Thomas Storer was born in Washington County, Pa., February 8, 1824, and died in Mount Pleasant, Pa., February 17, 1889. In the spring of 1850 he became a subject of converting grace and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in the same year was united in marriage with Miss Margaret N. Morgan, of Gastonville. In 1852 he removed to Perryopolis, Pa.; and in 1854, at a Quarterly Conference for Redstone Circuit, he was licensed to preach and appointed to Youghiogheny Circuit by the presiding elder. In 1857 he was received on trial in the Pittsburg Conference and returned to the same charge, after which he was appointed to Freedom, Butler, and Alliance. Here he enlisted in the service of his country, and was commissioned chaplain of the One Hundred and Thirty-fourth Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers, and spent ten months in the army. In 1863 he was appointed to Damascoville; then to Mount Union, Freedom again, Mount Pleasant, Wilkinsburg, Chartiers, Smithfield, O.; Scio, O.; president of Scio College. This territory being within the bounds of the East Ohio Conference, he became a member of that body; but in 1877 he was transferred to the Pittsburg Conference and appointed to Dravos and Greenock, Elizabeth, Dawson, West Elizabeth, and Mount Pleasant. Here his health became so impaired as to disqualify him for his ministerial work; accordingly, in 1884, he was granted a superannuated relation. At the Conference of 1885, however, he was restored to the effective list and appointed to Mount Lebanon, to which place he was re-appointed in 1886–87. In 1888 he was again superannuated, but was employed as a supply on the same work. Dr. Storer was a man for whom nature had performed a noble work; he was tall, erect, and of princely bearing, and his visage was so peculiarly impressive that he would have been a man of note in any community. His mental nature was in beautiful harmony with his physical structure; his mind was not only well stored with useful knowledge, but was fully adequate in its capabilities to the successful study of any branch of human science. Though a minister of the Gospel, he never lost his interest in the medical profession; but continued to keep himself well informed respecting its latest discoveries and improvements. But his chief joy was in being accounted worthy to be an embassador for Christ. In the pulpit his delivery was rapid, with but little gesticulation; his language well chosen and scholarly; his statements of doctrine clear and scriptural, and his arguments logical and forcible. He was a lover of children, and had the happy art of gaining their confidence and affection, took pleasure in being among them and in giving them wholesome instruction, and was therefore eminently fitted for the work of the Sabbath-school.

John H. Ebbert was born in Uniontown, Pa., in 1809, and died in Philadelphia, Pa., March 28, 1889. He was converted in the old church in Uniontown in 1829. Brother Ebbert was received into the Pittsburg Conference in 1831, and consecutively served according to appointment the following charges: North East, Cleveland, Braddock's Field, Redstone. In 1835 he was left without appointment at his own request, and in 1836 he was superannuated. About thirty years ago he returned to Pittsburg, and was employed for twenty or more years by the banking firm of N. Holmes & Son. During this time he attended Christ Church, and in the different departments of church work he exercised the zeal and fidelity which afforded the best proof of devotion to Christ and capacity for Christian usefulness. Those who knew him best speak of sweetness of spirit and gentle cheerfulness as his predominant traits. He was quite modest and retiring, with a child-like simplicity of spirit, and his companionship was always most agreeable.

Peter M. McGowan was born in Lisburn, County Antrim, Ireland, May 5, 1804, and died in California, Pa., June 7, 1889. His parents, with their family, came to America in 1811 and settled in Ligonier Valley, Pa. At the session of the Pittsburg Conference in 1826 he was received on trial in the traveling connection and appointed to Monroe Circuit, O., and in 1827 to Leesburg. In 1828 he was received into full connection, ordained deacon, and appointed to Monroe, O., the second time, Harrison, Va., and reappointed to Harrison, Somerset, St. Clairsville, O.; Pittsburg, Pa.; agent for Allegheny College. In 1835 he was transferred to the Missouri Conference, and made superintendent of the South Indian Mission District, but in 1837, on account of the loss of health, he was transferred to the Pittsburg Conference, and placed in a superannuated relation. In 1838, however, his relation was changed to effective, and he was appointed to Braddock's Field, Butler, Sewickley, Butler, Elizabeth, Martinsville, O.; Chartiers, Connellsville, Addison, Bridgeport; was superannuated, in which relation he was continued until he exchanged earth for heaven. Brother McGowan was twice married during his itinerant life: first, November 19, 1829, to Miss Maria Dana, of Newport, O., who died May 1, 1838; his second wife was Mrs. Jane Beazell. They were joined in wedlock September 20, 1837, and traveled together in love and harmony more than fifty years. It can be truthfully said of Brother McGowan that he was a good man; he loved God, loved the Bible, and loved the Church. He was sound in doctrine, clear in his Christian experience, strong in faith, joyful through hope, conscientious in all things, and emphatically a man of prayer. In his pulpit exercises he was fluent, plain, earnest, and forcible, having in view no other end than the glory of God and the salvation of men; he was a faithful and willing worker in the Master's vineyard. The closing months of Brother McGowan's life were months of severe affliction, but while suffering intensely he murmured not.

Edward B. Griffin was born in Baltimore, Md., September 15, 1824. Sometime during this period of his life he was converted to God in the old Charles Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore, Md. At the expiration of his apprenticeship, in 1845, he removed to Hollidaysburg, Pa. In January, 1846, he was licensed as a local preacher. At the session of the Pittsburg Conference in 1846 he was admitted on trial, and appointed as junior preacher to Indiana Circuit. He was ordained a deacon in 1848, and an elder in 1850. He served in the effective ranks various circuits and stations with acceptability and usefulness until 1883, when for one year he was on the supernumerary list. In 1884 he was made effective and appointed to Florence Circuit; in 1885–86 he served the Freedom Charge, the last of his honored and active career, for, in 1887, he was put on the superannuated list, never more to be appointed to circuit or station. In 1848 he was married to Narcissa Y. Stevenson, of Kittanning, Pa., who survives him. After his superannuation he spent a year in Chicago, but the rigors of the winter were too much for both him and his faithful wife, and they removed to Canton, O. His last illness was of brief duration; he was taken suddenly and violently ill on Saturday night, August 3, and lay in an unconscious stupor until Monday evening at half past six, August 5, when he quietly breathed his last. He was genial and brotherly in his spirit, a preacher full of fire and enthusiasm; a pastor faithful, loving, and honest. For more than forty-two years he went in and out before the brethren of this Conference without reproach or blame; we knew what was the manner of his life, his fidelity to his calling, and will honor and cherish his memory.

Central Illinois Conference.

Ahab Kellar died in Princeville, Ill., June 1, 1889. He was born in Monongalia County, W. Va., November 18, 1804; was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when about eighteen. He was licensed to preach in 1828. In 1832 he was received on trial in the Pittsburg Conference. His first appointment was to New Castle Circuit, a large and laborious charge, calling for preaching about thirty times every four weeks. Having entered upon his life-work, he pursued it with a steady hand for fifty-seven years. He never lost the holy fire kindled at conversion. Experimental religion was his theme. There was a peculiar unction attending his ministry, and God put great honor on his labors in the conversion of hundreds of precious souls. He was a loyal Methodist, believing in the doctrines, usages, and discipline of his Church; he was an ardent lover of the itinerant ministry, and rejoiced in the privilege of sharing its sacrifices and toils. He was a plain, modest man, retiring in manner, never pushing himself for choice appointments or easy fields of labor. He did cheerfully the work assigned him by the authorities of the Church, and was always happy in that work. He was a man of general reading, and had a large store of useful knowledge. He was well instructed in the Holy Scriptures; a diligent student of Clark, Fletcher, and Watson, and in his hands the trumpet of the Gospel gave no uncertain sound on the doctrines of Methodist theology. The camp-meeting was to him a bethel. Married to an elect lady, consecrated to the service of God, she proved an efficient helper in his ministry. His last sickness was somewhat protracted, and his sufferings severe. All that affectionate children and kind friends could do to alleviate his pain was freely done. Visiting him and engaging in prayer, a friend said: "Tell me, Brother Kellar, how does it look on the other side?" With holy fire flashing from his eyes, and glory beaming in his countenance, he responded with emphasis: "All right! all right! all right!" Brother Kellar served the following charges in the Pittsburg Conference: New Casle. Franklin, Brookville, Centerville, Salem, Clarksville, Greenville and Clarksville, Cambridge twice. Seagertown, Parkman twice, Edinburg twice, Hubbard twice, Curlsville twice, Hendersonville twice, Cooperstown. In 1855 Peoria Conference appointed him twice to Magnolia, Lacon, Groveland, Princeville, Brimfield and Kickapoo, Kickapoo, Smithville, Mount Hedding, La Prairie Center, Wethersfield, Victoria, Zion, Zion and Atkinson, North Henderson, Ionia, Wataga, superannuated, Reading, and Elmore.

William Jefferson Smith, the subject of this memoir, was born in Eastern Tennessee, May 30, 1820. In 1843 he was happily converted to God. The work of grace in his soul was thorough and instantaneous, and with it at once came the call to "Go work in my vineyard." He was married, June 19, 1845, to Miss Lydia Harrington, of Joliet, Ill., who, in all his ministry, from the beginning to the end, was all that a Christian minister's wife could be. He was licensed to preach June 3, 1848, and in the following September was received on trial in the Rock River Annual Conference. His first appointment was the Aurora Circuit. It was a blessed revival year, the number of converts reaching up into the hundreds. From thenceforward he was a successful evangelist. His appointment to a charge was almost a sure indication of a blessed revival. His greatest ambition was to lead souls to Christ. In 1849 Brother Smith was appointed to Sugar River Circuit, and, although in poor health, he was honored of God in the salvation of many precious souls. This was a very laborious work, but under God he was more successful in that field of labor, and greater results came out of it, than any other charge ever assigned him. He received into the Church, during the two years of his ministry there, two hundred and ninety-five converts. At the Conference of 1852 he was ordained an elder in the Church of God, and appointed to the Macomb Circuit, where he had his usual success in winning souls. In 1852 the bishop appointed him to the Kainsville Circuit, where he labored hard, but, for unknown reasons, without success. He always looked upon his work there as a failure. In 1855 the Rock River Conference, which included all the northern half of the State of Illinois, was divided, making two Conferences out of the territory, namely, Rock River and Peoria, now the Central Illinois Conference. Brother Smith by his own request was appointed to the Sheffield Charge, in the bounds of the Peoria Conference. Here he succeeded in building two new churches, organizing several new societies, and adding many to the church. In 1856 he was appointed to the Victoria Circuit, where he remained two years, and where the revival spirit continued to manifest itself, taking into the church over two hundred members, erecting a fine church building and a comfortable parsonage. At the Conference of 1858 he was appointed to the Wyoming Circuit. Here again churches were built and repaired, and the usual revival results followed his labors. In 1859 he was returned for a second year to Wyoming. In 1860 he was appointed to the Lafayette and Toulon work, good results following: one hundred and sixty additions to the church, also a new parsonage and house of worship built. In 1862 the bishop stationed him at Oneida, where he was blessed in his efforts to save souls, and built for those times a very fine church. In 1864 he was appointed to the Woodhull Charge, and in the two years he was there added one hundred and fifty souls to the church and built two houses of worship. While on this charge he received a paralytic stroke from which he never fully recovered. At the Conference of 1866 he laid aside his armor, fully conscious of the fact that his work was nearly finished. He took a superannuated relation to the Conference, and in the right spirit retired from the active ministry. He remained on the superannuated list in this Conference twenty-three years, and on the 13th of last May God called him to receive his crown.

Francis Smith was born February 11, 1822, in La Rue County, Ky., not more than a mile from where Abraham Lincoln was born. He died at his home near Lexington, Ill., January 3, 1889. He came to Illinois with his parents in 1840. He joined the Illinois Conference in the fall of 1842, and continued in the work for forty-five years, as an effective preacher for forty years. In 1882 he was superannuated, but after that served as a supply on Noah's Creek Circuit one year, and the White Oak appointment of Hudson Circuit one year; and apparently with renewed health and vigor he entered upon his work at Roanoke last October, saying he never felt better in his life. About the middle of November his health broke, and he failed rapidly till the end came. It was a beautiful ending of a life of much toil and sincere discipleship. Brother Smith was united in marriage in 1848 to Adelia Ann Hall. When the Illinois Conference was divided in 1844 he fell into the Rock River division, and when the Rock River was divided in 1848 he fell into the Wisconsin division. In 1850 he was transferred to the Rock River, and when it was again divided in 1856 he fell into the Peoria division, called, after 1860, Central Illinois Conference. He served the following appointments: Mercer Circuit, Illinois Conference; Crow Meadow Circuit, Lacon, Madison Mission, and Lancaster and Potosi, Rock River Conference; Hazel Green Circuit, Wisconsin Conference; Groveland Circuit, Henry and Brimfield, Rock River Conference; La Salle and Washington District, Peoria Conference; Monmouth District, Abingdon, Aledo, Union and Towanda, Selma Circuit, Brimfield, Kirkwood and Gilson, Central Illinois Conference; so completing an unbroken forty years of effective itinerancy, and then remained with us a little more than six years as a superannuate. Brother Smith was an incisive doctrinal preacher, well posted in Methodist doctrines, of which he was a champion during the controversial period. He conducted several debates to the satisfaction of his brethren, and is remembered by the younger members of the Conference with John Luccock, A. E. Phelps, and William Underwood as a defender of the faith. Even after he superannuated, in 1886, he held a debate at Cuba, Ill., with a Campbellite preacher, and with profit to our Church.

John Morey was born in Lincolnsville, Me., August 28, 1802. On the 22d of May, 1834, the Quarterly Conference of Westmoreland Circuit gave him license to preach. In 1834 he was ordained deacon and admitted on trial in the Ohio Conference and appointed to Wellington Circuit. The circuit was large, consisting of twenty-four appointments, requiring three hundred miles of travel on horseback, each round through dense forests, with bridle-paths blazed by the woodman's ax. In 1837 the Conference was divided and he fell into the North Ohio Conference and was appointed to Vermillion Circuit. In 1839 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference, and, at the next session, he was appointed to Macomb Circuit. In 1841 he was appointed to Knoxville Circuit, and after a very pleasant year in 1842 he was sent to Canton Circuit. On the division of the Conference he fell into the Rock River Conference. In 1844 he was appointed to Berwick and Monmouth Circuit. In 1845 he asked a superannuated relation, which was granted. In 1846 he was appointed presiding elder of Washington District. He continued on this district two years, and much good was accomplished. During this time the work began among the Swedes within the bounds of La Fayette Circuit, under the labors of Jonas J. Hedstrom, a local deacon, and under the supervision of the presiding elder a mission was formally organized, with head-quarters at Bishop Hill. This work has grown until a great Conference is the result. It is safe to say that Elder Morey, like others of the fathers, "builded more wisely than he knew," and never dreamed of the vast importance of the work he did. In 1848 he was appointed to Knoxville District. He remained on the district two years. In 1850, his health having again failed, he was superannuated for a year. In 1851 he was appointed to New Boston Circuit. In 1852 he was pastor of Rock Island Station. In 1853 Elder Morey was appointed to La Fayette Circuit. Remaining two years upon the charge among old friends, and having several hundred conversions, he declared them among the most pleasant and useful of his life. In 1855 he was appointed to Peru District. In 1856 the Rock River Conference was divided, and the Peoria (now Central Illinois) Conference organized. This divided the Peru District, and at the Conference held in Peoria, September 10, 1856, by Bishop Janes, Elder Morey was appointed to the Kewanee District. At the close of his second year the district was divided, and he remained two years more upon that part which was called Toulon District. In 1860 he was again superannuated. In 1861 he was presiding elder of Monmouth District. In 1862 he was appointed to Abingdon Circuit. In 1863–64 he was sent to Avon Circuit, and in 1865 he was superannuated, which relation he sustained till death. In 1856 he was a delegate from the Rock River Conference to the General Conference which met in Indianapolis.

William C. Cumming was born in Rockbridge County, Va., January 22, 1799. In 1822, on the 29th day of October, he started to his first appointment, the Sequachy Valley Circuit. This was the beginning of a marvelous record, covering a period of nearly half a century of sacrifice, toil, and victory. He was then sent to Lee Circuit, New River, Jonesborough Circuit, ordained elder in 1826, French Broad Circuit, in North Carolina, Lebanon Circuit, New River Circuit. August 25, 1829, he was married to Miss Maria Patton. He then traveled the Tazewell Circuit, Carter Valley Circuit, Abingdon Circuit, Va., and the Blountville Circuit. In October, 1834, he started for the Illinois Conference, and in October, 1835, was re-admitted to the traveling connection by the Illinois Annual Conference, and appointed to the Peoria Mission, Bureau, Lebanon, Carlisle, Mount Carmel, Wabash, Mount Carmel again, Peoria, La Fayette, superannuated. In 1846 he was made effective and sent to Henry Mission, Hennepin, Brimfield, Washington, Washington again, Pleasant Hill, Whitefield, Marshall, Chillicothe, Reading Mission, and Spring Bay Mission. In 1859 his name appears again on the superannuated list, but in 1860 he was employed to travel the Marshall Circuit. In 1861 he traveled the Minonk Circuit. He closed his long and useful career in the active service of the ministry on the Wethersfield Charge, where he served the Church in 1864–65. Father Cumming was a man whom men delighted to honor, and in whose heroic soul dwelt the spirit of fidelity, fraternity, and love—fidelity to God's truth and the great Head of the Church. He was a preacher of the word, and declared the whole counsel of God. Those that knew him trusted him as a friend and loved him as a brother.

Central German Conference.

PAUL BRODBECK was born June 29, 1809, in Bingen, Darmstadt, Germany. He left his native country March 24, 1834, and came to New York May 10 of the same year. He was married the 3d of September, 1835, to Katharina Whitbeck. From New York he went to Portsmouth. He entered the Ohio Conference in 1845, and filled the following charges with remarkable success: Wheeling, W. Va.; Marietta, Clarington, Wheeling, W. Va.; Pomeroy, Portsmouth, Toledo, Columbus, Newport, Hamilton, Marietta again, Piqua. On account of poor health he was in 1886 superannuated, and died February 26, 1889.

HEINRICH MAENTZ was born April 23, 1823, in Eboldhausen, Hanover, in Germany, and reached the age of sixty-five years. At the age of fourteen years the Holy Spirit of God powerfully convicted him of his sins, to which he yielded obedience, and promised God to live a pious life. When twenty-five years old he emigrated to America. On November 24, 1847, he married Miss Hannah Renziehausen, who survives him. In 1852 Brother Mantz came to Monterey, Allegan County, Mich. Settling on a piece of uncultivated land, he first met with many difficulties and hard labor. He then entered on the active work of the ministry, and in this service of his Master he finished his earthly career. During the year 1859 he traveled under the presiding elder. He worked faithfully in the Allegan and Grand Rapids Mission. He enjoyed this work, and was in great earnestness to save many souls for Christ. In August, 1859, he was taken up, by recommendation, into the Annual Conference, where he received his second appointment, the Lansing Mission. God blessed his labor, and the congregation in Delhi was organized. From 1860 to 1869 he traveled on the East Saginaw and Newport Missions, Roseville and West Detroit, and Grand Rapids, where he also took up the White Hall and Muskegon Mission. In 1870 he again had charge of Allegan Mission, and made it a self-supporting circuit. In 1873 he was sent to White Hall and Muskegon Mission again, with the privilege of traveling across the Atlantic if he chose. He went back to Germany to visit his beloved mother and relatives once more. While there he proved to be a great blessing to his people at home. After his return he was sent in 1874 to the Caseville Mission. He went with the earnest decision to fully consecrate his life to the Lord's cause, and when in full activity he was paralyzed on his left side, and though almost disabled, he continued his work until Conference. At the Conference in Detroit, in 1875, he was superannuated. He then withdrew to his home in Monterey, Allegan County, Mich., and though it was a hard task for him he went willingly to serve his God patiently, through fourteen years of painful sufferings, until his peaceful death on the morning of the 29th of October, 1888.

JOHN LEPPERT departed this life March 5, 1889, in the enjoyment of living faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. He was born June 19, 1828, in Almanswever, Grand Duchy of Baden, Germany, and came to this country with his parents four years later. In January, 1842, Brother Leppert united with the Church, and was soundly converted the following Good Friday. He loved the institutions of our Church, and from the time of his conversion was a regular attendant at class and prayer meetings. In 1851 he married Dorothea Christiana, daughter of Rev. John Geyer. In 1859 he removed to Lawrenceburg, Ind. During the sickness of the pastor of that charge Brother Leppert did good service. At the first session of the Central German Conference Brother Leppert was ordained deacon, and was some months later appointed to supply Milan Circuit. In 1868 he was received into full membership in the Conference. He served the following fields of labor: Milan, Sidney, Piqua and Greenville Mission, New Knoxville Mission, the newly organized White Creek and Bedford Mission, Cannelton, and Golconda Circuit. On all these fields Brother Leppert worked faithfully, and not without success. In 1881 he was compelled to superannuate in consequence of a paralysis of the vocal organs. He was poor, and was obliged to work hard for a living. He was a true Christian, lovable, and contented. He died near Spraytown, Jackson County, Ind. He now rests in peace, and his works do follow him.

ADAM WEBER was born at Canal Dover, O., November 3, 1843. He was converted in 1866. Being convinced of his call to the ministry he went to the German Wallace College at Berea, O., in 1869, to prepare for his divine calling. After three years' study he entered the active work and served the following charges: Irving, Mich.; Wheeling, W. Va.; Greenville, O.; Vermillion, O.; West Unity, O.; Francisco, Mich. In 1885 he was superannuated on account of poor health. Brother Weber was married in 1874 to Theresa Kupfer, and died the 10th of April, 1889.

AUGUST AUST was born January 3, 1848, at Langenbielan, Prussia. Leaving his native country, he went to London, England, where he was converted. From London he emigrated to America in 1872. Entering the ministry in 1875, he filled the following charges: White Hall and Montague, Mich.; Marine City, Mich.; Lansing, Mich.; Defiance, O. In 1886 he moved to Delhi, Mich., where he closed his ministerial work. He was married in 1880 to Sister Hermine Herholz, and died the 3d of December, 1888.

CONRAD TRAENKER was born May 16, 1845, at Queck, Kreis Lauterbach, Oberhessen, and died in peace, after a severe and prolonged sickness, May 19, 1889. He emigrated to this country in the year 1872, and soon after his arrival at New York was converted. Having found the "pearl of great price," he very soon felt it his calling also to acquaint others with the riches in Christ, and, in preparation for this work, he visited for a number of years our German Wallace College at Berea, O. Brother John Schneider, who was at that time presiding elder of the North Ohio District, in the early part of 1878 sent Brother Traenker to Johnstown, Pa., and in the fall of that year he was received into the Central German Conference. During his short ministerial activity he served the following circuits: Newark and Dresden, O.; Ann Arbor, Mich., and Roseville, Mich. At his last appointment he had a wonderful revival; but his physical strength gave way, and at the Conference of 1885 he found himself obliged to accept a supernumerary relation. He spent the last years of his life with his family and relatives at Delaware, O., where he enjoyed the hearty love, sympathy, and respect of every one who knew him. As long as his health permitted he would occasionally act as supply for the pastor in charge, and his very spiritual sermons, his fervent prayers, and clear testimonies always were a blessing to those who heard them.

West Wisconsin Conference.

James Mount Wells was born in Washington County, N. Y., July 24, 1815, and died in Arkansaw, Wis., Oct. 30, 1888. He was married January 28, 1836, to Miss Perrie L. Twitchell. Brother Wells was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1846, and immediately commenced active work as Sunday-school superintendent and class-leader. In 1849 he moved with his family and settled in Baraboo, Wis., where he began work for the Master by helping to plan and build the first Methodist Episcopal church north and west of Madison. The same year he was licensed to preach and went as a supply to Sun Prairie Circuit. He was admitted on trial in the Wisconsin Conference in 1851, and received the following appointments: Madison Circuit, Prairie du Sac, Lodi, and Poynette. In 1855 he was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon. He was appointed to Poynette again, Point Bluff, and located in 1858 at his own request. While located he served Hastings, Minn.; Prescott, Wis.; and other places, while many of our ministers were in the army. He was re-admitted at the North-west Wisconsin Conference held at Menominee, and appointed successively to Osceola Mills, Mondovi, Pepin, Eau Claire, Eau Galle, Louisville, Blue Mills and Pleasant Valley, Mondovi again, Alma and Garden Valley, Alma and Fairchild, Medford, Pepin. He then became superannuated, and so continued until death. In 1887 he had a stroke of paralysis which rendered him helpless and speechless for some time, and from which he never fully recovered. He was a great sufferer for many months. Brother Wells was a good preacher and successful in winning many souls for Christ. He was Wesleyan in doctrine and sound in faith.

William Haw was born near Ripon, England, February 22, 1836, and died of apoplexy in Monroe, Wis., October 13, 1888, in his fifty-fourth year. In his nineteenth year he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the first session of the West Wisconsin Conference, held in Madison in 1856, he was received on trial. In 1858 he was ordained deacon, and in the fall of 1859 elder. The following are the appointments he successively filled: Black River Falls, Jacksonville, Mindoro, and Black River Falls a second term. By the action of the General Conference of 1860 he found himself in the newly formed North-west Wisconsin Conference, in which he filled the following appointments: Sparta, La Crosse, Menominee, and presiding elder for two years on Superior District. The North-west Wisconsin Conference having been by the General Conference of 1868 again merged in the West Wisconsin Conference, in it he served the following charges: Portage City, presiding elder of Mineral Point District, Hazel Green, presiding elder of Saint Croix District, Prescott, Augusta, Hammond, and Monroe. In the spring of 1859 he married Miss Julia Wilson. Three times during his itinerant life he acceptably filled the important office of presiding elder, and as such both preachers and laity could ever trust his godly judgment. On two occasions—first at Baltimore in 1876, and again at Cincinnati in 1880—he was honored by his brethren as one of their delegates to the General Conference. As a preacher he excelled. His sermons were arranged with great care, all superfluous matter was eliminated, and they were instructive, entertaining, and profitable. As a husband and father he was a model; patient, careful, thoughtful, and loving, ever seeking the comfort and welfare of his household. As a pastor, whether in district, station, or circuit work, he was a success. Only a week before he died he attended the session of his Annual Conference held in Mauston, and took his usual active place in the work of the Conference. Returning home, he began to busy himself in preparing to move to Chippewa Falls, his new field of labor. On Friday evening, the fourth day after his return, he retired to rest as well as usual, though quite weary. About four o'clock Saturday morning his wife was awakened by his making strange and unintelligible sounds. She spoke to him, but received no reply. The family was called and medical aid obtained, but he continued unable to speak. He breathed his last about six P. M. the same day.

W. S. Hayes was born December 27, 1846. Before he had reached the fifteenth anniversary of his birth he joined the Union army, and his career as a soldier was marked with deeds of valor. He took part in a number of the most memorable battles, and was wounded at Cold Harbor, where he received three bullets in his left hand. Having spent his full term of service with the company with which he first enlisted, he again enlisted in Hancock's Veteran Corps and served to the close of the war. In 1875 he united with the Rock River Conference of the United Brethren Church, and continued a member ten years. In the fall of 1885 he sought a home in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and preached under the presiding elder at Argyle, on the Madison District, one year. At the Conference of 1886 he was received into the West Wisconsin Conference and stationed at Dane. From Dane he removed to Juda last Conference in feeble health, but cherishing the hope that with a little less of preaching during the winter season he might regain his wonted strength and be able to do good service for the Master in years to come. It was, however, soon manifest that his work on earth was nearing its close, and in less than four years he was called home. On the 16th of January he left Juda for the Jerusalem above. The life of Brother Hayes is spoken of, by those who knew him best, as one of ceaseless activity; his death as that of a complete and holy triumph.

Detroit Conference.

William Benson was born in the town of Springfield, Otsego County, N. Y., March 17, 1820, and died at Adrian, Mich., July 7, 1889. In 1834 his father moved to Moscow, Hillsdale County, Mich. Soon after his conversion he felt himself called of God to preach the Gospel. He then repaired to Albion Seminary, in the second year of its existence, in 1845, to make preparation for his life-work. On completing his course of study he joined the Michigan Annual Conference on trial in 1846. His appointments in the Michigan and Detroit Conferences (becoming a member of the latter by division in 1856) are as follows: Dearborn, Rome, Byron, Duplain, Eagle River, Marquette, Lower Ann Arbor, Milford, Pinckney, Bay City, Trenton, Algonac, Saint Clair, Chaplain of the Ninth Michigan Cavalry, Lexington, Memphis, Napoleon, Clayton. In 1871 he was placed on the superannuated list. In his superannuation he served three years as a supply on Adrian District. He thus gave twenty-five years of his life to the active work of the Christian ministry. His marriage to Miss E. J. Camburn, of Moscow, Mich., occurred October 25, 1847. His domestic life was one of unimpaired felicity. As a man, as a citizen, as a Christian minister, Brother Benson commanded the respect of all the churches and communities in whose service he spent the years of his public life. He faithfully and intelligently discharged the duties of every position he occupied. His mental endowments placed him on a fair average with men of intelligence and responsibility in the community. His knowledge of books included the best works in theology and experimental and practical Christianity. He knew how to awaken the dormant conscience and to create deep conviction of sin. He could, in simplicity of language and with urgency of motive and pathos of feeling, point the penitent soul to the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world. Special revivals rewarded his labors at Milford and at Bay City. In the former place eighty precious souls found peace in believing in Christ. At Bay City he found only ten persons in the membership of the church, so that Methodism had a low place in the estimation of the community. But a glorious revival secured the addition of eighty-eight souls to the church. From that time to the present its history records no success in any man's pastorate more worthy of grateful commemoration than the success that crowned the labors of William Benson. On December 28, 1885, at his home in Adrian, Brother Benson was stricken with paralysis. He partially recovered from the attack, but three years and eight months of weakness, of suffering, of weary ebbing away of life, intervened before his dismissal. The last day of waiting and watching finally came. It was the Lord's day. And lo! the rest of the Sabbath, by sudden transition, became to him the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

Thomas G. Huckle was born in Luton, England, June 6, 1855, and died in Saint Clair, Mich., March 4, 1889. In early youth he was converted and joined the Church. He soon officiated as exhorter, and at the early age of sixteen was licensed to preach the Gospel. At a suitable time, according to Wesleyan usage, he was employed on a circuit as second preacher, and in this capacity spent three years in the Isle of Wight. Raunds, Wellsburgh Circuit, was his next field of labor. Here he formed the acquaintance of Miss Bertha Walker, who became his devoted, affectionate wife. His health and strength being seriously impaired, he hoped to restore them by a change of climate, and left his native land for New York city, arriving there with his wife and child in December, 1881. Thence he came to Port Huron, Mich., and was immediately appointed by the presiding elder of that district to Port Hope, to fill a vacancy. He served here the full term of three years, greatly to the satisfaction of the people. His next appointment was Imlay City. Saint Clair was his third appointment. Here his ministrations were highly prized, and he labored with great zeal and enthusiasm. In the second year of his pastorate in Saint Clair his eyes became so affected that he nearly lost their use, but skillful treatment well-nigh restored them to perfect soundness. Presently constitutional difficulties appeared, and he obtained surgical treatment at the Sanitarium in Clifton Springs, N. Y. Some relief was thus obtained, but the difficulties soon returned, and this time he went to the Methodist Episcopal Hospital in Brooklyn, where surgical skill was supposed to have permanently improved his condition. On returning home he confidently expected to resume his work, but a relapse almost immediately set in, and he never again entered his pulpit. In a few days death closed his promising labors in the vineyard of his Master, and dismissed him to his reward and rest in those mansions of peace where there is fullness of joy and pleasures for evermore.

Holston Conference.

Moses Seaton was about sixty years of age at the time of his death, which occurred April 17, 1889, at Mountain City, Johnson County, Tenn. He was converted about the year 1848, and in due time was licensed to preach the Gospel, and joined the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and traveled four or five years before the war and then located. August 13, 1861, he was united in marriage with Mary A. Stanfield, of Bradley County, Tenn. During the war he was unswerving in his devotion to the Union, and came near losing his life for this devotion by one who had been a fellow-itinerant. After the reorganization of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church he promptly identified himself with the mother-Church. In October, 1869, he was re-admitted into the traveling connection at Jonesborough, and stationed on the Kingsport Circuit. The next year he was in charge of Saint Claire Circuit, and the following year on Rheatown Circuit; then for two years was again sent to Saint Clair. He was sent to Greeneville Circuit in 1875–76, and the three following years to Saint Clair again. In 1880 he was sent to labor on the Fall Branch Circuit, and the following year his name appears in the supernumerary list. He was made effective in October, 1883, and stationed on Erwin Circuit, and the following year labored on Jonesborough Circuit, and at the close of the year was again placed in the supernumerary relation. In 1886 he was again effective and appointed to the Watauga Circuit, where he had labored the preceding year as a supply. One year later he was appointed to the Taylorsville Circuit, and at the last session of the Holston Conference was returned to the same charge, with its name changed to Mountain City Circuit. Of his last hours we know but little, but we know of his life and its trials, and we feel sure that his trials ended with his life.

The New arrangement by which the Conferences in China and Japan are to be put into the Spring list would place the Foochow Conference in March. Its session in 1890 will, therefore, be omitted, since it would come only about three months after its meeting in December, 1889.

By order of the Board of Bishops,

CYRUS D. FOSS, Assistant Secretary.

TOPEKA, KAN., Nov. 14, 1888.
